ΑΥΓΗΣ

We Have A Dream . . .

Yet nothing is impossible,
nothing
Therefore, let us make perfect our will.

Whatever your labors

and aspirations,

In the noisy confusion of life;

Keep peace with your soul.

-Desiderata

Just walk
by me,
And be my friend . . .

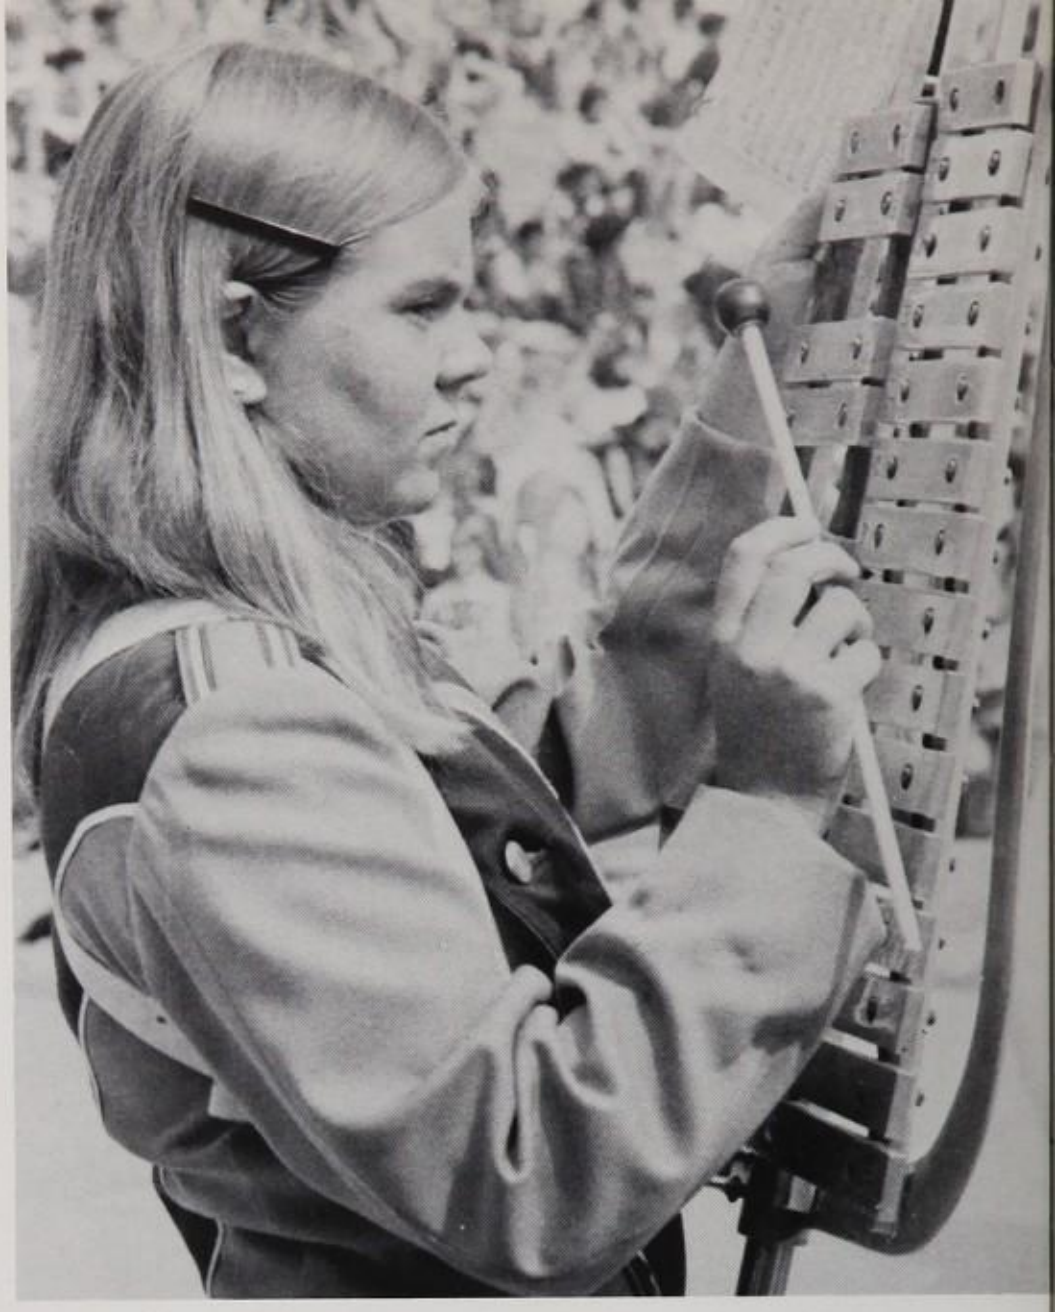
There will be time

There will be time

To prepare a face to meet

The faces that you meet.

T. S. Eliot



The road
has
well built for us, and I believe
it is incumbent
upon us, in our generation,
to build
our road for the next generation.

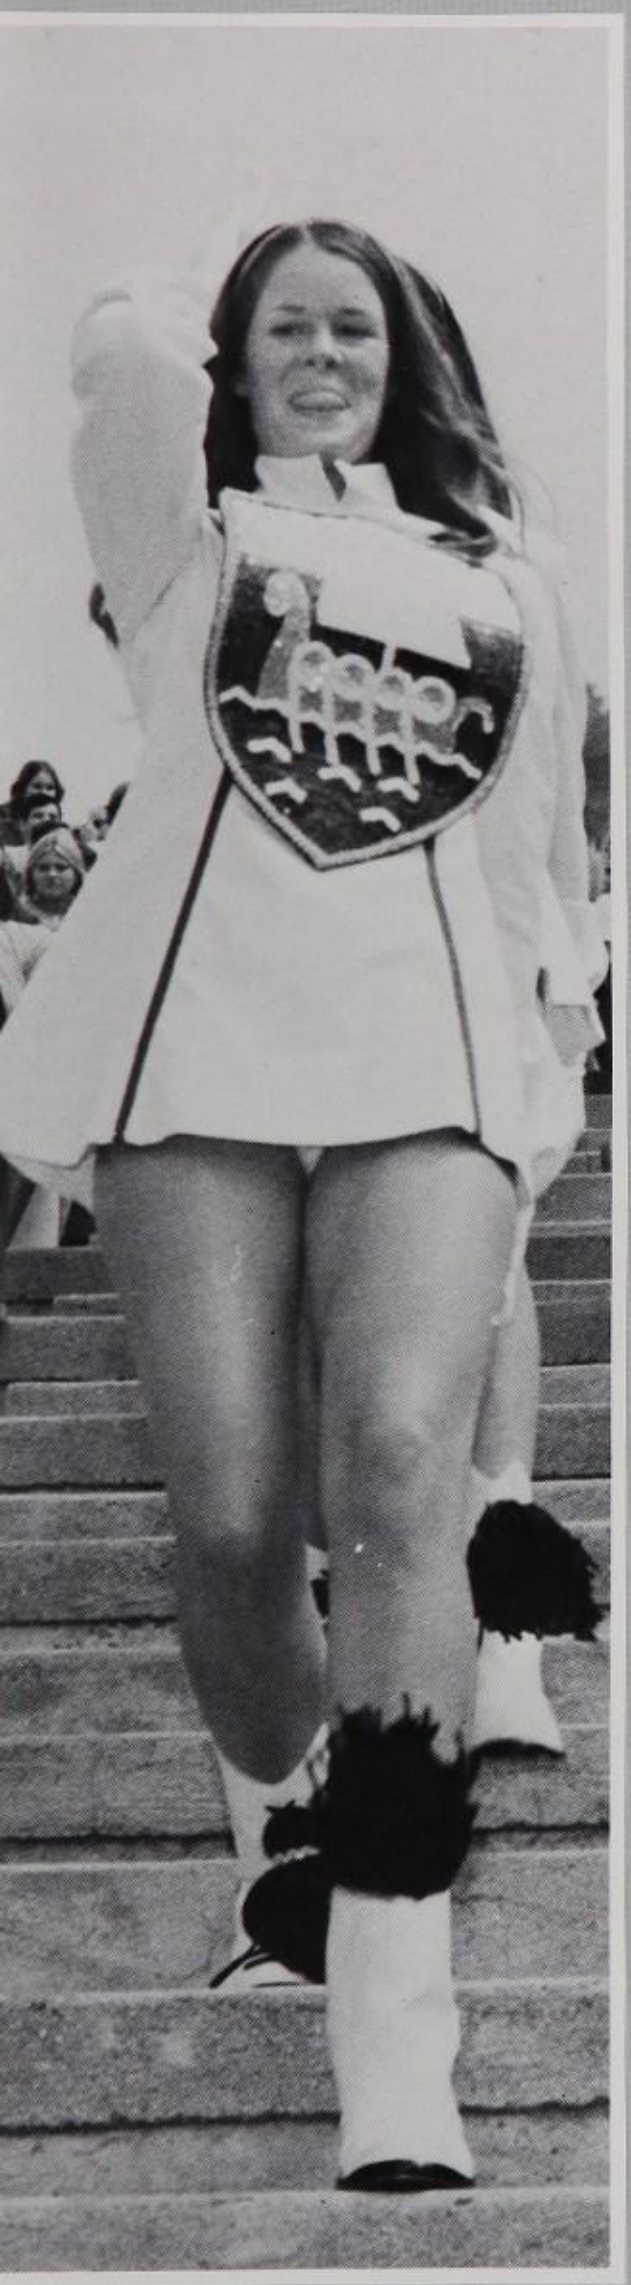
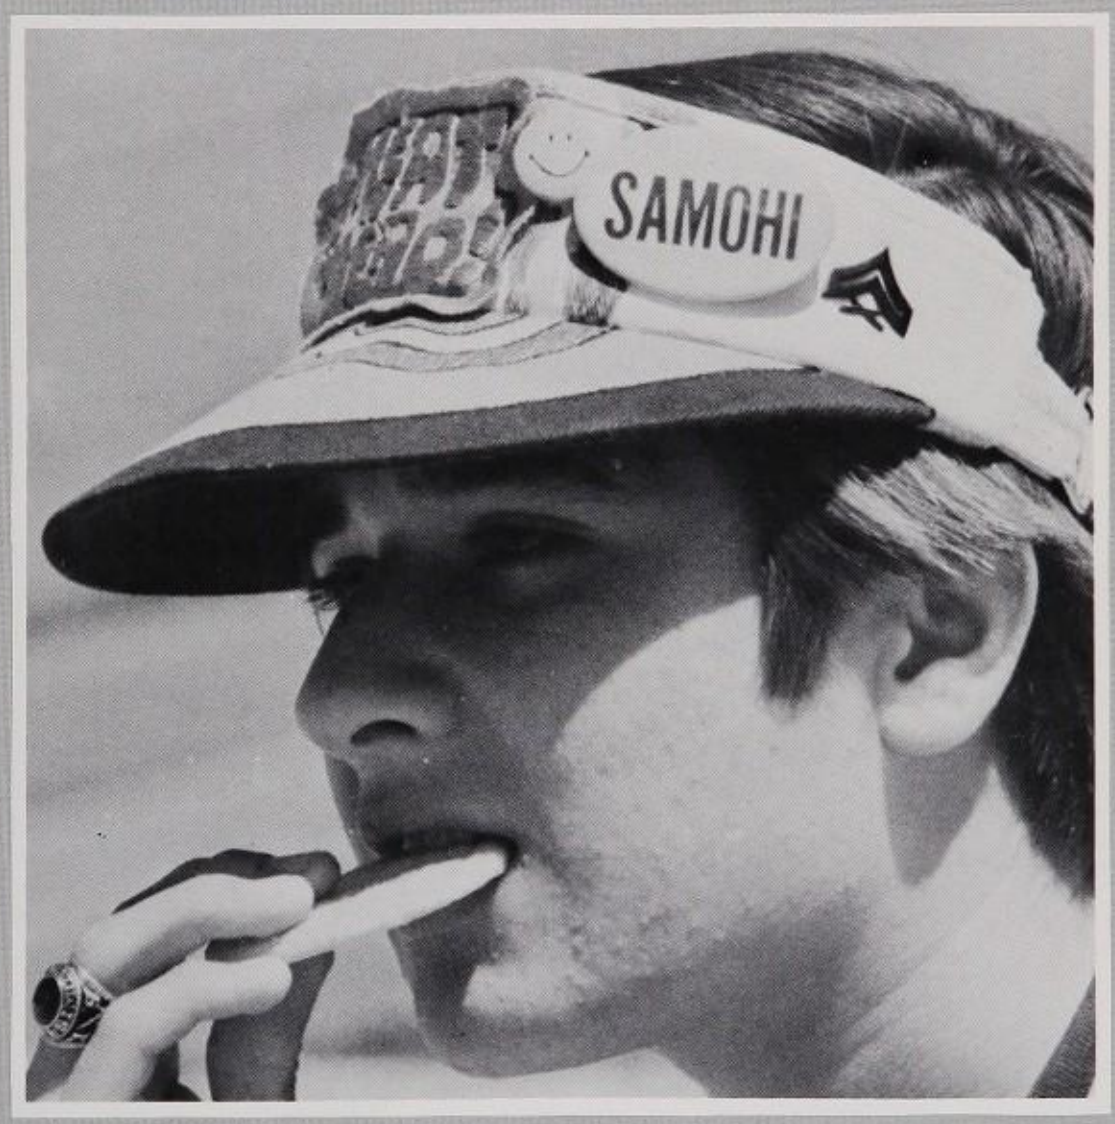
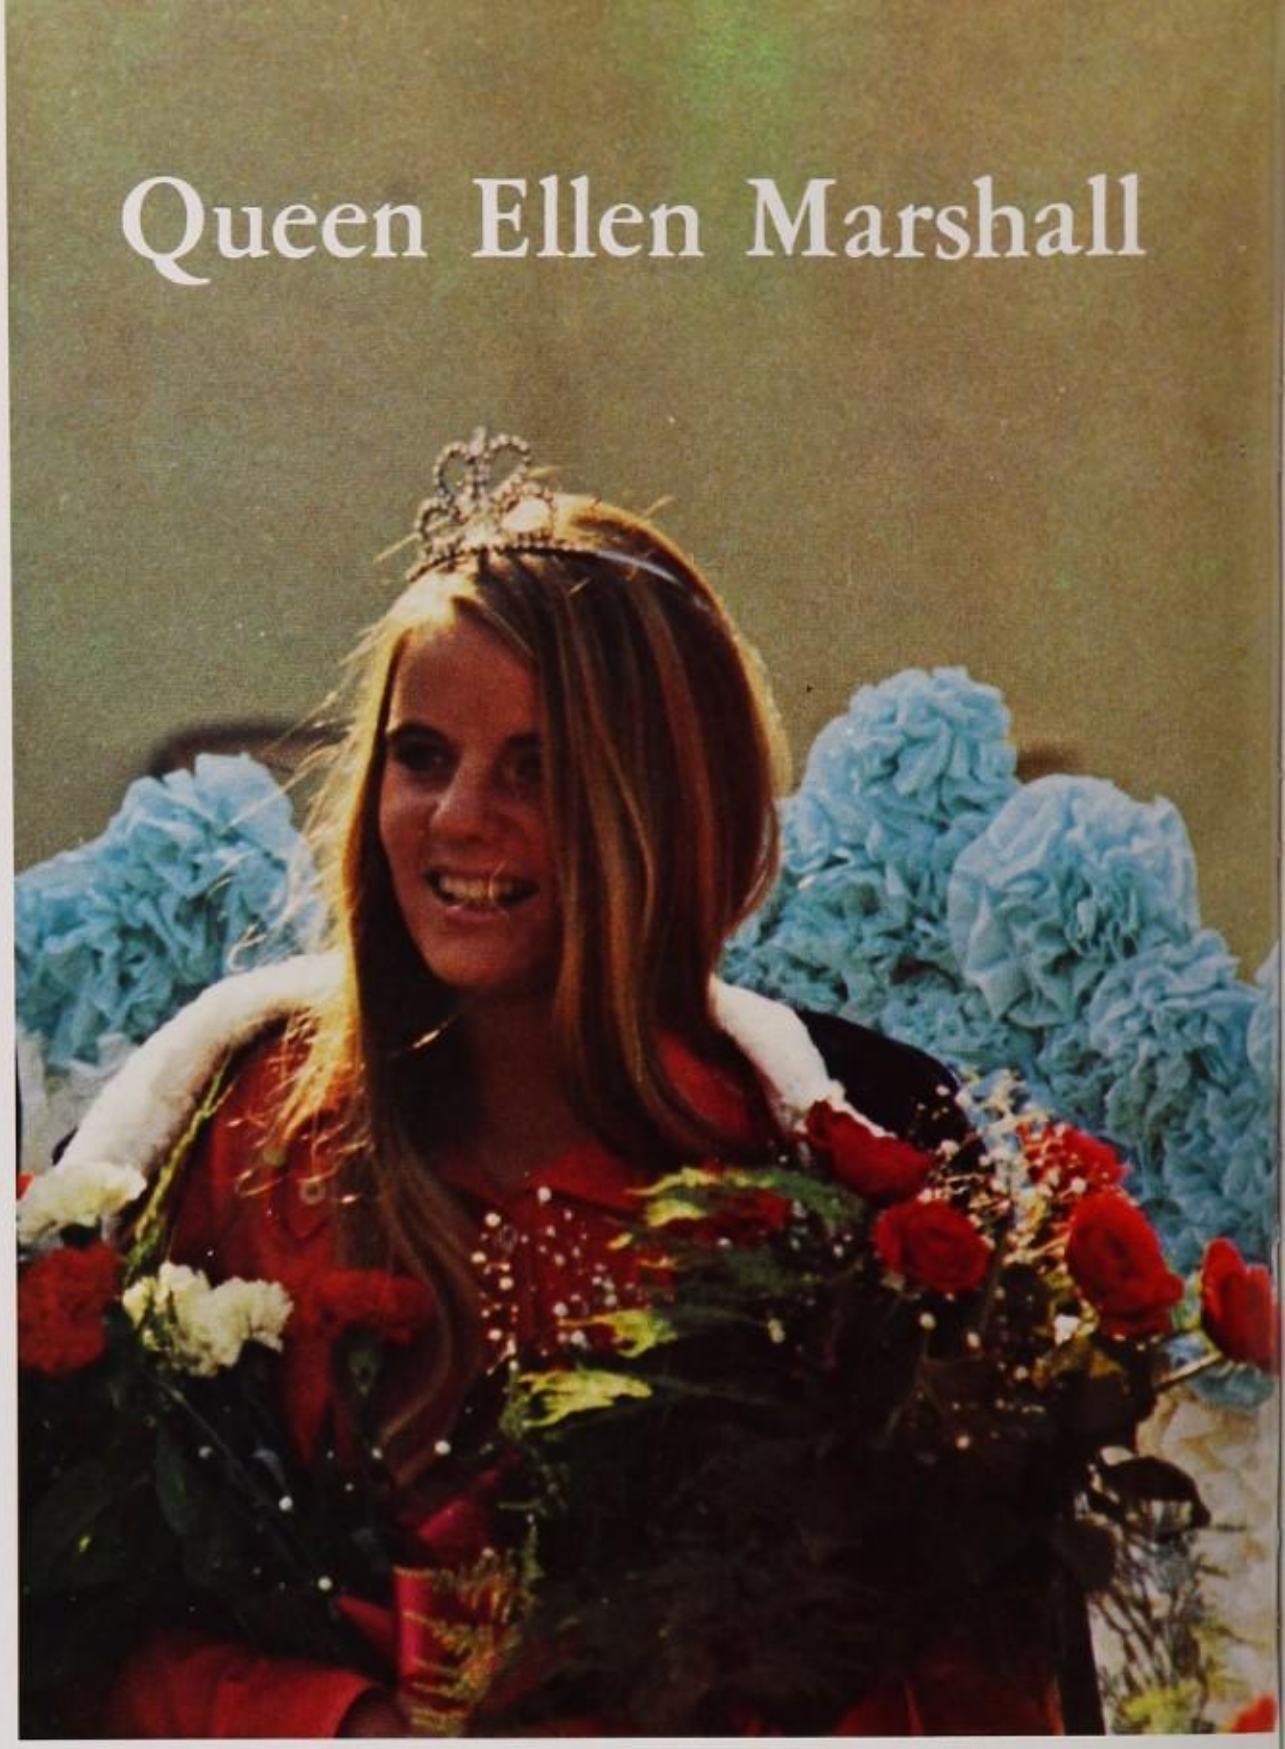
THE SPIRITED





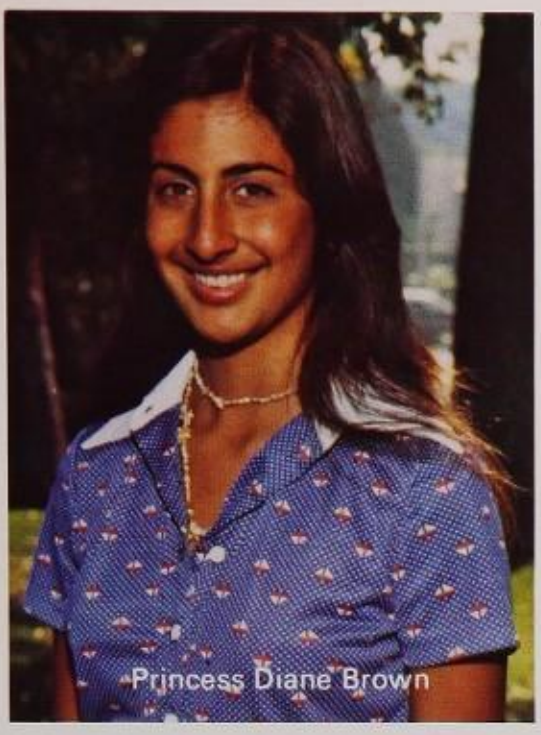
Queen Ellen Marshall



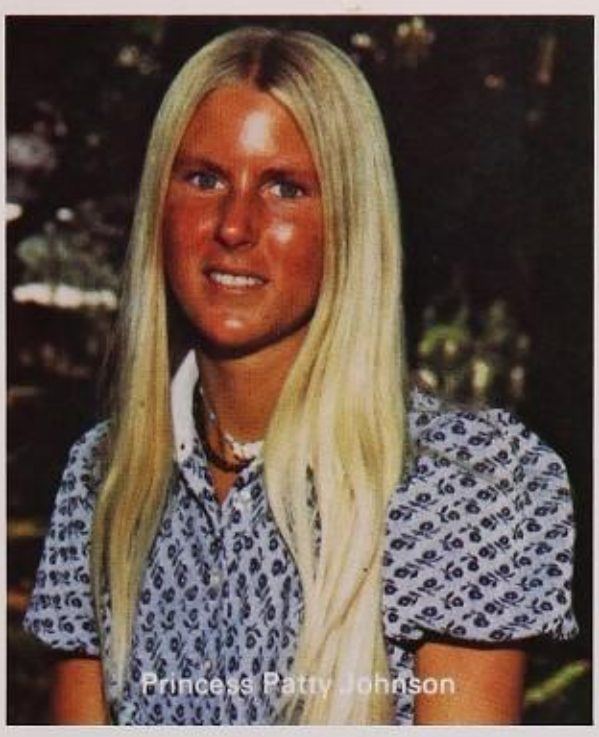
Princess Linda Pankau

Princess Ursula Burton

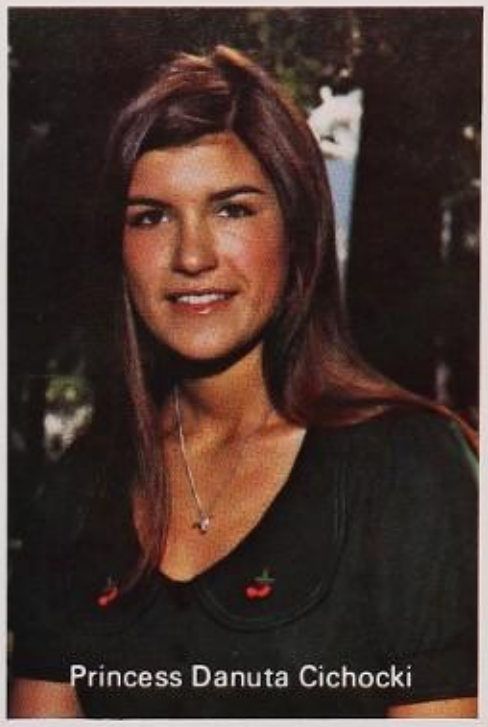
Princess DaVette Wilder



Princess Diane Brown



Princess Patty Johnson



Princess Danuta Cichocki

Seven, that's the lucky number selected from 29 beautiful girls. Six Princesses and the Queen. One girl chosen by the entire school to reign over an array of Homecoming Day events, along with six Princesses in her royal court.

The crowning touch lies with Principal W. Terry Pearson, and the honor of giving the traditional kiss is also his. Time passes slowly until coronation, then everything comes and goes so quickly.

The evening Activities begin with a parade through Santa Monica and then once around the Corsair Field track. Queen Ellen Marshall and her court are escorted by handsome young men in tuxedoes. The royal court was presented at half-time in a colorful circus wagon, and the introduction of these attractive girls serves as the focal point of the half-time entertainment to a game which we all wish had turned out differently.

Spirit '73

Spirit reigned once again as Yell King Mike Stephenson and his lively yell leaders cheered the Vikings on through another season of pep rallies and football games. To the music of our Viking band, the Sergeanettes marched, bounced, and twirled their way down the Greek Theater. Unforgettable as Victor Viking was Paul Jensen, along with his clowning companion, Katie Cronan, alias Vickie Viking.

The spirited showed their enthusiasm for the Blue and Gold and once again proved that Odin rules.

Varsity Yell Leaders Boost Spirit

The 72-73 Varsity Yell Leaders, with the glow of hope and fortitude, fired up spirit at the pep rallies, basketball games, and last but not least football games. Yell King Mike Stephenson along with his five funny friends cheered the Vikes on through victory and defeat. Each yell leader had his specialty: Margie was sometimes "satisfied," Dennis "made it funky," DaVette went "bananas," Jeanie "got it on in the morning and got it on at night," and Tim liked "McDonalds." This year's yell leaders truly inspired enthusiasm.

JV Yell Leaders

This year, seven lively Junior Varsity Yell Leaders stimulated student spirit at a number of sports events. The girls, who practiced many hours to perfect their routines, included Cathy Barker, Debbie Cobo, Jodi Evans, Cathy Fowler, Sue Prey, Julie Reid, and CeCe Sanders.

Pep Club

Have you ever wondered who makes the signs and banners for the football games and pep rallies? It's the Pep Club, whose aim is to promote spirit and pep throughout the Samohi student body. This year, the group was headed by President Joanne Shames.

Sergeanette Fronts

This year the Sergeanettes were under the leadership of captains Marianne Meyer, Debbie Guercio, Debbie Detrixhe, Pam Kambur, and Lisa Krueger. Our supurb drill team and outstanding fronts performed in three parades: the Rosemead parade, the Santa Monica Band Review, and the Huntington Park Christmas parade, which was televised.

The organization had many fund-raising activities, some of which included a rummage sale and a car wash. The money netted from these activities went to buy new parade uniforms for the drill. Performing at Magic Mountain and in a Ram's halftime were the highlights of the year. The Sergeanettes were sponsored as always by Miss Gina Biggs and Mrs. Ellen Francisco.

SONGS (clockwise): Margie Hoag, Sally Travers, Patty Jenny, Jackie Litten, first lieutenant; Liane Chow, Wendy Wagnon.

Viking Band

The 1972-1973 Samohi Viking Band performed popular music for many a captive audience during their half-time shows. They also entered in the Rosemead Parade and the El Primero Band Review capturing second place in both and making it an outstanding year for the Band.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Zachman, assisted by Mr. Gerald Anderson and led by Drum Major Eric Burr, the Band has traveled many places during the year and will continue to play the fine music they are famous for.

Music Makers

The Samohi Orchestra was chosen in a taped audition by a committee of college directors to perform for the Western Division of the Music Educators National Conference in Tucson, Arizona March 2, 1973. Their other performances include an October music assembly, Christmas Vespers assembly and concert, Stairway to the Stars, festivals and a Spring Concert.

Chamber Orchestra is made up of the 11 most outstanding string players in the orchestra. These dedicated musicians study and perform Chamber orchestra works and other literature not possible for a larger group.

Viking Vocalists

Singing their way to success, the Viking vocalist groups participated in many extra-curricular festivals and performances, starting with the initial performance in October at Open House and continuing throughout the year with the gala Christmas programs.

The Madrigals, under the direction of Mr. William Bohn, proved to be in popular demand throughout Southern California, with their many invitations to sing at luncheons of civic groups in the area.

Girls' Glee, directed by Ms. Janice Mitchell, and Viking Chorale, with Mr. Bohn's guidance, proved to be the real talent in the Fine Arts Department with the entertainment they provided the student body throughout the year.

ASB President Steve Yoshinaga

The purpose of our national government is to serve the people, so it must also be with our student government. It must be a government by the people and the power must be in them. Can that be said of our student government today?

In the years the student spends in high school, he will go through many different experiences. The most important experience is his breaking loose of his childhood dreams and reaching out for the things he has come to value the most. The high school must be a place to gather these values and form them into individual goals.

Only through listening to both sides can a clear picture be established, so that the values can be real, not part of a propagandised illusion. Student government, if not to serve the students, must present all sides of the issues. Only then can the appropriate decision be made by all students in their search for personal happiness.

-Steven K. Yoshinaga

ASB President and Officers

Cleverly avoiding slick security guards, the 26 ASB cabinet members managed to solve all crises from bent princess crowns to folded, spindled, and mutilated seminar cards.

The cabinet, composed of five officers, 10 commissioners, eight reps-at-large and three class presidents, commandeered the ASB room once a week to decide budget allotments, election procedures and other mundane matters, as well as more important issues such as student rights. The year was rounded out with an overhaul of the obsolete student constitution.

Girls' League

The fall of 1972 was a busy season for the Girls' League Board, which enthusiastically performed all sorts of duties for Samohi students. The year began with the annual Girls' League Picnic in September, when all the young ladies new to Vikesville were oriented as to what activities they might look forward to during their high school years. Later, there were many hours of hard work put into planning several candy sales, a stationery sale, and the sponsoring of Back-to-School Night. Homecoming 1972 really gave Mary Stewart and her girls something to work for, as they took on—and quite successfully carried out—the task of designing and constructing the throne for Homecoming Queen Ellen Marshall. During the spring semester, the dedication and spirit of Girls' League was seen in a number of other projects, including picnics and girlish get togethers.

Orchesis

Prancing and pirouetting their way toward their goals of producing original dance compositions for dance theater, Orchesis staged several performances for the school in the Noon Concert program in February, as well as public productions in Barnum Hall in March.

Under the guidance of Wendy Hammond, president, and Mrs. Marilyn Allen, sponsor, Orchesis set out to explore the mediums of improvisation, dramatic dance, and dance in relation to poetry, music and art. Aside from the actual practice, lots of time was also spent learning about prefessional dance and dramatic theater, with much concentration expended on music concerts and art galleries and exhibits.

Drama Club

Mr. Eugene Jellison

Indian Hill's thespians banded together in one of the most popular and well known organizations on campus—the 1972-73 Drama Club.

Meeting almost daily in Mr. Peter Sawaya's room, who co - sponsors the club with Mr. Eugene Jellison, the Drama Club planned school and community performances with a zealousness that was almost frightening. Besides the traditional three plays a year, many of the club's members participated in the community plays at the Morgan Theater.

Presided over by Chancellor Geoff Smith, Vice - Chancellor Barbara Adleman, and Secretary - Treasurer Jeanine Kaaz, Drama Club worked out the details to three performances during the year.

Art Club

The Art Club is dedicated to learning more about current art trends. The organization's year drew to a close seeing activities such as trips to art galleries and exhibits, as well as drawing up plans to build a miniature "environment" in the old English Building.

Animal Club

In order to discover more about the behavior and care of animals, and to share that knowledge with others, the Animal Club met every week to discuss the ins and outs of the animal kingdom. Speakers were procured who were professionally involved with animals, and the club rounded out an exciting year with field trips to zoos and animal exhibitions.

Nostalgia Club

If you have seen the sock hops at lunch, you've seen the Nostalgia Club. They are a group of people interested in old movie stars, antique clothes and old records. They sponsored Nostalgia Day and Mickey Mouse Day at Samo, and some old-fashioned dances as well.

Agape

Under the symbol of IXOYE, Agape members shared love and understanding with others by singing together, assembling a homecoming float, and listening to best-selling authors and other speakers. The club's name is Greek, which stands for "God's Love." Agape met once a week under the sponsorship of Mr. Eugene Jellison.

Student Environmental Council

The Student Environmental Council worked actively for Proposition 20, the Coastal Initiative, both on and off campus. The Council also provided an educational forum for the students of Samohi on many environmental issues. Their biggest hope of the year was to turn the vacated P.C.R. area into a park, using funds from the state, the student government, and their own efforts.

Film Club

Film Club, with the direction of Mr. Bill Clawson, presented many outstanding films in Barnum Hall this year. They planned for a film festival and in November, horror films were highlighted.

More a film appreciation class, the club achieved its goals by making films of many different things.

Chess Club

Chess Club is an organization dedicated to increasing the popularity of chess as a recreational sport. Informality is the key to the club's success, so members drop in any time.

Conservatory of Classical Music

Meeting every week, under the supervision of Mr. Gary Johnston, the members of the Conservatory of Classical Music made plans to attend concerts at various concert halls. As a new club this year, it sought to enlarge the musical experience of its members.

Wright, G. Wyatt, D. Young; Mrs. Eleanor Fain, Mrs. Sue Miles, sponsors.

BSU

The goal of the Samohi BSU is to unite all black students and to help eliminate the racial problem. Many activities have been sponsored by the club to enhance everyone's knowledge and appreciation of Black Heritage and culture. They put on a basketball game that included students, faculty, and police officers.

Car washes and other fund-raising events made money that went towards college scholarships.

By working for what it considers basic human rights for all high school students, the Student Union is striving toward making Samohi a democratically run, humane place of learning.

The 1972-3 school year saw the Union sponsor lectures on issues from student rights to the war, as well as a slide show.

Occult Club

Mystifying the common masses, the Occult Club, under the influence of sponsor Mr. Peter Sawaya, set up such things as seances, as well as studying ESP and mind-over-matter. President Ann Schiermeyer presided over the goings-on in room H-112 during lunchtimes.

Forensics

Samohi's '72-'73 Forensics Club fought low budgeting and second-class transportation, as well as up to 30 other high schools in search of inter-scholastic debate and speech awards. Starting in October with the Burbank tourney and ending in May with the spring banquet, the club saw a full year laced with a profusion of superior and excellent awards, and a smattering of gold medals. The team boasted one of the largest novice teams in recent years, while the varsity was capably led by Captain Gary Field, President Dana Parker, Veep Francis Mukai, Treasurer Lane Kiriyama, Sergeant-at-Arms Mark Robinson, and sponsor Mr. Michael Kosturick.

Future Teachers

One of the many vocation-oriented organizations on campus is the Future Teachers' Club. The club provides its members with information about what to look forward to and what to expect in a teaching career. The club, under the direction of Mr. Lee Finch and Mrs. Stella Staley, awarded the Dr. George Drake scholarship to its most outstanding member.

MEMBERS (l. to r.): Mrs. Stella Staley, Donna Thun, Sandra Kramer, Maria Akiyama, Elizabeth Bentley, Wendy Wagnon, Toni Trives, Ruth Perry, Hellen Bilynsky, Wendy Barrus, Tanda Thayer, Mr. Lee Finch.

Biology Honor Society

Dedicating itself to the exploration of the biology discipline, Samo's Biology Honor Society met weekly under the direction of Mr. Charles Campman. Throughout the year, the club threw itself into several industrious projects, such as the 3-D model of a proposed student park, and the construction of a marine aquarium. The year was filled out with the completion of several fund-raising drives.

Oceanic Club

The Oceanic Club set its course for success with the inclusion of such varied fields as sailing, diving, and surfing. Operating out of Marina Del Rey, the organization has gone on several trips to enjoy the Pacific, including an interesting jaunt to Catalina. The club, under the guidance of Mr. Vic Richards, undertook and completed successfully the renovation of an old sailing boat. The finished project was utilized to its fullest potential during the rest of the year.

Club Hispanico

Dedicated to the advancement of the Spanish language as an art form, and the preservation and propagation of their Spanish heritage, Club Hispanico met once weekly under the guidance of Mr. Forrest Freed. The club had a very active year, culminating with many members participating in Cinco de Mayo activities.

MEMBERS: E. Alvarez, J. Alvarez, L. Arajo, L. Becerra, L. Becerra, E. Cadena, M. Campos, M. Chavez, A. Contreraz, R. Copp, A. Corona, L. Diaz, L. Escudera, M. Figueroa, E. Flores, L. Franco, C. MECHA

MECHA, composed of mainly Chicano and Latin students, was set up to establish a respectable position in school and in student government. MECHA, under the leadership of Mr. Darrell Marks and Mr. Ernie Garcia sponsors, and president Dominic Gomez, held a large Cinco de Mayo festival.

Archaeological Society

Samohi's ditch - digging intellectuals found refuge in the Archaeological Society, a new club formed this year for the benefit of both the community and the school. Dedicating themselves to learning more about the world by a study of the past, the club, with the help of UCLA archaeologists, began a "dig" in Malibu. Sponsored by Mr. Ken Kearsley, the organization rounded out the year's activities with a picnic in honor of the patrons who contributed money to finance the club's operation.

Ski Club

Even while schussing down the slopes of Mammoth during Thanksgiving, the Ski Club was busy contriving plans for the next trip to Alta, Utah during Christmas. Possibly one of the busiest clubs on campus, they met once a week under the direction of Ms. Kitty Weber to discuss everything from techniques to equipment.

Stage, Sound, and Video Technicians

The major activities of the Stage Crew, headed by Mr. Fred Purucker, are to design lighting for all school productions and to construct sets, such as for the play "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie."

During the performances the groups run the lighting, curtains, and aim the lights on stage. Both the Sound and the Stage Crew meet as a class as well as a club.

Under the guise of a club, the Video Technicians dedicated themselves to serving Indian Hill as a service organization. With Mr. Ken Kearsley at the helm, the group met every Monday after school to learn the finer points of recording both live and pre-taped events as well as the vocational aspects of video taping.

Le Cercle Francais

"Le Cercle Francais," sponsored by Mrs. Joy Koufopolous, is a club interested in learning more about the French language and the culture of the French people. The activities of the club include going to French movies and putting on a production of an all-French language play.

Latin Club

Resolved to the proposition that Latin is not a dead language, the Latin Club met more or less regularly to discuss the ins and outs of the intricacies of the Latin style. Sponsored by Mr. Bernard Roberts, and composed mainly of refugees from his past and current classes, the organization had a good time throughout the year.

Holiday Circle

Conniving and scheming throughout the year, the Holiday Circle Club got together with startling regularity to share ideas about gifts and decorations for the holidays. The club, under the direction of Mrs. Kim Berney, planned bake and candy sales to finance their wide range of activities.

MEMBERS: Leanne Hoppe, Kerstin Dreyer, Kris Fowler, Debbie Kington, Lynn Blair, Michelle Rue, Susan Perry, Kathy Harris, and Karen Bentcourt.

Samohi is fortunate enough to be one of the few schools in California to have its own private art gallery to provide enriching displays of prominent artists. Robert's Art Gallery, named after its founder, had a busy year with displays opening at the rate of almost one a month. Talent ranged from the western works of Jim Dunham, an exibit that opened in September, to the art student's portfolios at the end of the year.

Math Contest Club

Engaging themselves both mentally and physically, the Math Contest Club, under the direction of Ms. Kitty Weber, combined their mathematical talents to place highly in the Bay League tourneys that they participated in. The sole purpose of the club being to compete, the many meets that were entered were financed by the candy and other drives.

Radio Club

The Samohi Radio Club, alias Samohams, conducted themselves with courtesy and grace as they explored the ether of the world through their electronic gadgetry. Operating their own station on the band, Samohams drew new members with the promise of excitement and education. The dial artists spent the year with technical discourses on the new Radio Shack catalog, as well as more serious debates on their equipment and new articles.

Fencing

The major highlight of the year for the Fencing Club was hosting the 12th annual Interscholastic Fencing Championships, which brought together in rigid competition schools from all over Southern California, as well as such local rivals as Hawthorne, South Torrance, and West Torrance. And when it was all over, Samohi had a champion in the women's division — Jeanine Kaaz—and the men's, too—Sandor Schlaffer. Mrs. Josephine Dyson, who sponsored the Fencing Club, was so excited by Jeanine's performance that she even went so far as to predict the Samohi senior would someday be winning an Olympic medal. In addition, the Viking girls' squad took a blue ribbon in team competition for the second consecutive year.

Medical Science

Studying the profession made famous by Hippocrates, the Medical Science Club spent lunchtimes poring over medical texts and other tools of the trade, as well as listening to various speakers. Composed mainly of science students, the organization, under the guidance of Mrs. Ruth Sayre, proved a big help to students planning careers in medicine.

CSF Chapter 97

Affiliated with the statewide California Scholarship Federation, the Delians, Samo's honor society, devoted themselves fully to the tutoring service they offer. Eligibility being determined by grades, the organization prided itself with being rather exclusive. The Delians filled out the year with many fund-raising activities to provide money for a scholarship and the Sealbearers' Banquet. Mr. Bernard Roberts and Mr. LeRoy Vaughn, sponsors, dedicated themselves to Delians by expending much time and energy.

Throughout the year the aspiring journalists of Samohi have worked from the handicap imposed on every regularly published newspaper: deadline pressure. Somehow we've consistently managed to overcome the obstacle week after week, as Monday's deadline became Tuesday's headache, and Wednesday's copyreading became Thursday's print shop hassle.

And, gradually, the burden of pressure was lightened, as the staff gelled and began to work as a well-drilled team, rather than as several independent players.

In putting out The SAMOHI, we've attempted to inform the student body about school activities and issues. It's hardly been an easy task, but it has provided an invaluable experience. As the primary channel of communication between students and administration and students and students, we've attempted to keep the student body advised of all measures effected that might in any way affect the rights or privileges of students while on campus.

On issues and matters that we considered to be of great importance and relevancy, we took outspoken stands. In evaluating our actions, one must consider that a man is never wrong doing what he thinks is right. We were infallible.

As we of The SAMOHI staff look back upon the trials and tribulations we've encountered in attempting to fulfill our journalistic duties, we realize that, if nothing else, we have learned the difference between a crusading reporter and an uncensored reporter: the former strives to achieve the freedom of the latter.

In publishing The SAMOHI, our goals were: To accurately echo the interests, ideas and opinions of the student body; to serve as the voice of the students by acting as an open forum through which students could air their views and both sides of campus issues would be represented; and to serve as a major factor in influencing student opinion and in presenting campus issues to the student body on an impartial basis.

We can only hope that we have managed to attain these goals.

NAUTILUS 1973

It all started on a Saturday in September, when Placentia presented the world's first fold-away high school, Pischel presented Paragon and Marshall with the Matching Hair and Shoes and six from Samohi began a yearbook and a friendship. We didn't win the extra inch of spot color or the 85-cent layout kit, but we laughed a lot about Erwin Shaw, what happened in the Nurse's Office, and the way those hicks went nuts over a couple of cheap doorprizes. Later, we fought about the theme, decided on a dream, then drove up the coast for yet another scream: Crumb Eyes brought Makin' Bacon, and we roared some more. Somehow, we managed to make all five deadlines, but in spite of that, the book was almost secondary. Before we learned what to bleed off the page, we found out some things about ourselves and about other people. There were fights and unkindness, but now that it's over, who remembers anything but the good times: The 1973 Gretha . . . Steve's Fuller brushes and his door-to-door exploits with older women who liked his line . . . elections for Class Re and Class Dud . . . ragging on Alfa, Pischel, Marshall, and Mark because he wouldn't get his section done . . .snoring through a day at Knott's Berry Farm when we left one behind to pan for Oldies But Goodies . . . Gracia winning the Who Can Lose Interest the Fastest competition . . . a poster party that pleased all but one . . . watching Cindy blush when TC's brawny bronzed body was discussed . . . poor Ursula: they took out her wisdom teeth and all she could say was, "I have class, so I can't come til six" . . . Pax was obnoxious, and JoJo was beautiful, but he had that problem even a birthday party couldn't fix. There was also Greene and White (alias Cottontail and Flipper); Anne and the Missing Patrons; Krista, who was nearly lynched for trying to steal a chair; Marianne in love with Gary but not with Family Days; and the photographers who could climb palm trees better than they could take pictures. In the end, there was talk about Mr. Pardridge's class in respect, but we really didn't need it. We had already learned something far more important. We had a dream, and it came true.

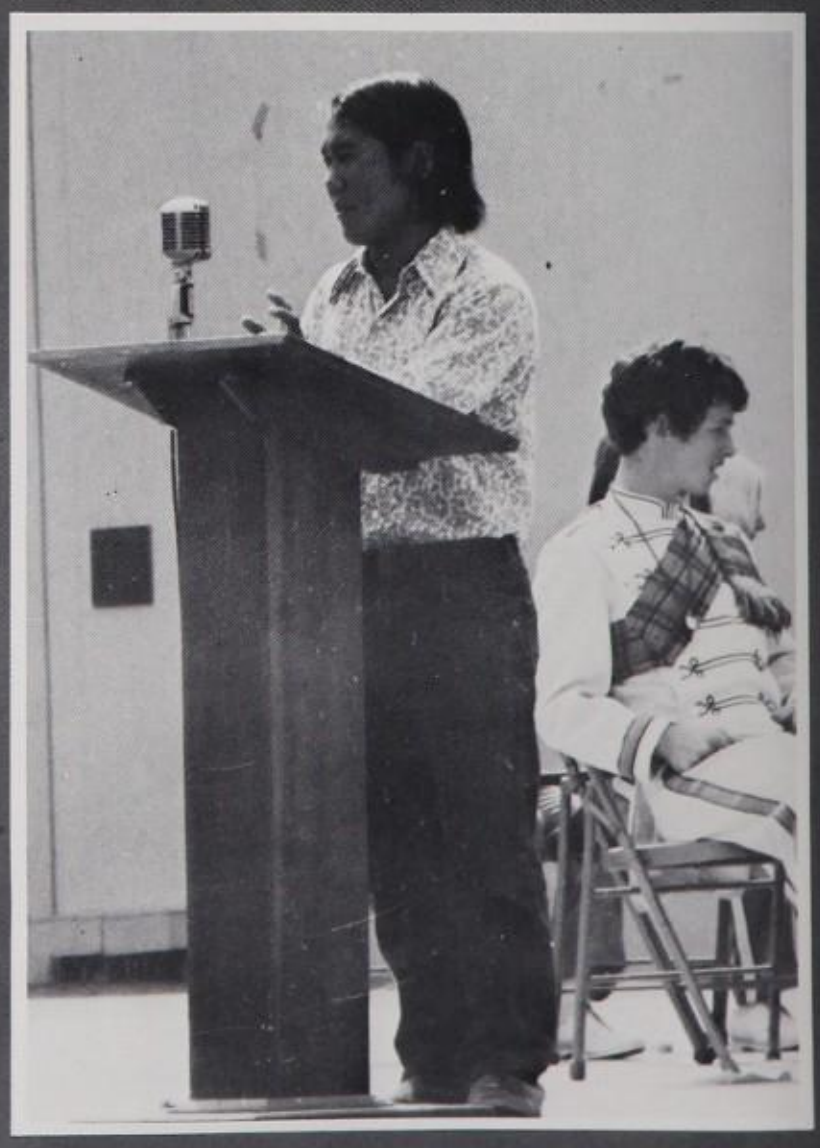
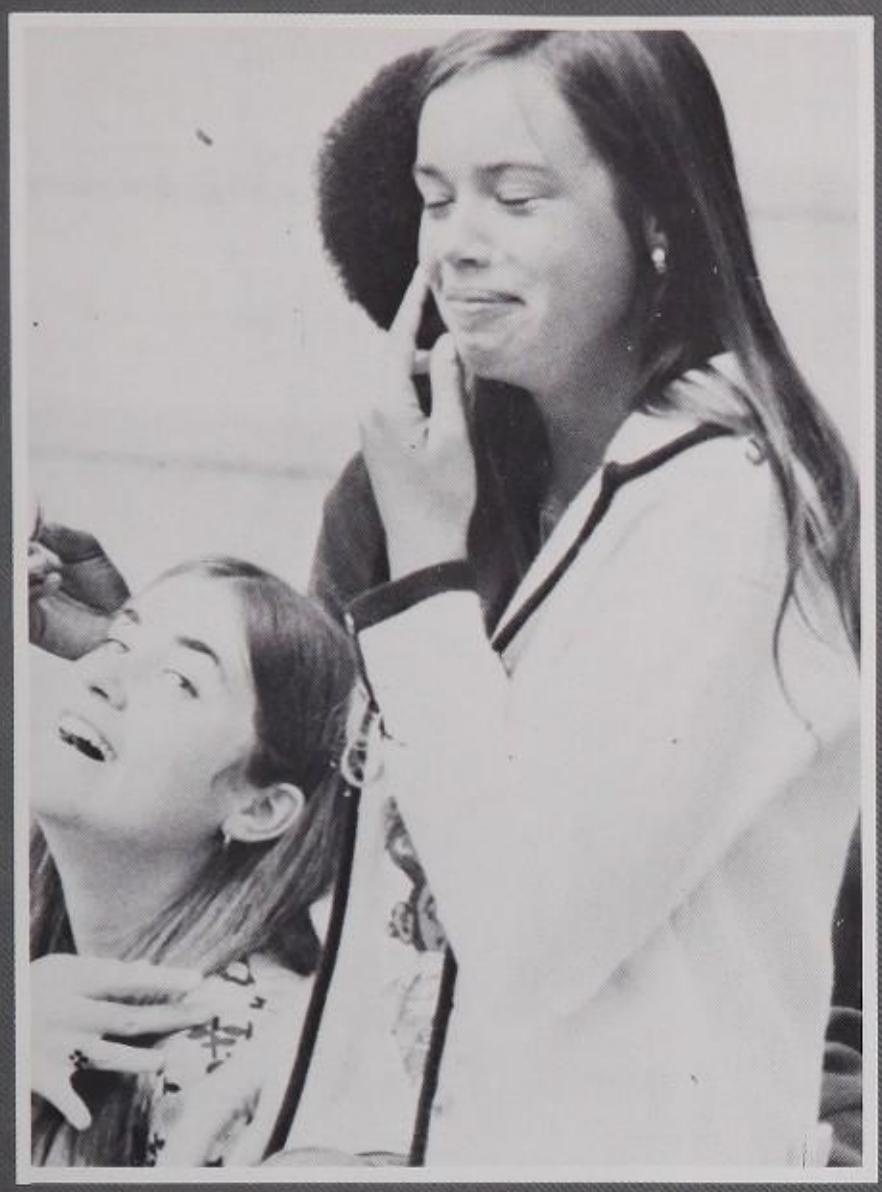
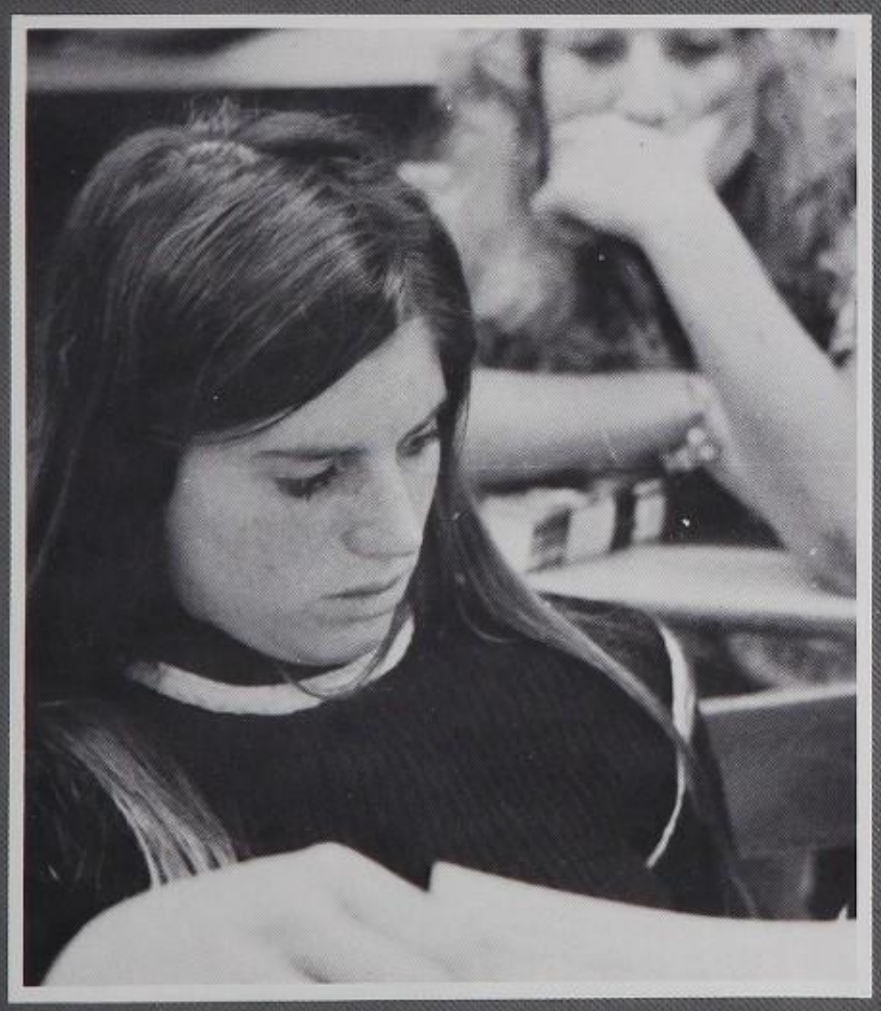
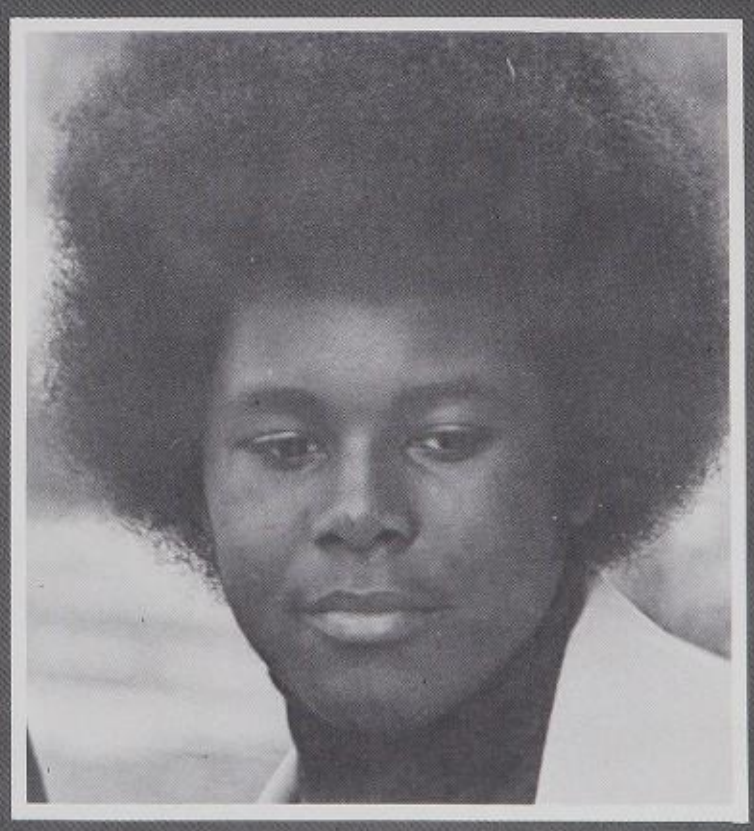
THE GRADUATES









Class Of '73

September 1970. Samohi was introduced to a new breed: the Sophomore Class. We arrived, armed with spirit, and eager to accept our Viking heritage. Homecoming was our first major event and, following tradition, we took last place in class competition.

Spring came quicker than we thought and our class efforts went into that unforgettable (?) book sale. We lost our principal, Dr. George K. Drake, to retirement, but gained another spirited Viking in Mr. W. Terry Pearson. After a summer of sun and fun, we returned to our sacred halls of learning once more—this time, with a year of experience behind us, and with great anticipation of the year to come. As we prepared for our second Homecoming, our many hours of hard work were rewarded, as we broke tradition and this time took first place in class competition with our float, "The Viking History."

The Language Building re-opened and with it came the new library. But, sadly, the English Building closed its doors for a year of re-modeling.

Our spring semester was very successful, as we turned our energies toward a tutoring program at the Broadway Elementary School. When June arrived, we said good-bye to many of our senior friends and began to look forward to our own senior year.

Once again, we launched our Viking Ship into a new year in the fall of 1972, but this time as "Mighty Seniors." We planned several money-making projects, and the senior-faculty basketball game and the lunch box auction proved to be quite successful. Our final Homecoming arrived, but not without the usual excitement. After many hours of hard and monotonous work, the Senior Class float was well underway. Following a sleepless night, we arrived on campus ready to construct the magnificent float. And we were sufficiently rewarded when we won first place in class competition, but seeing our float in flames later was more than most of us could handle, so many tears were shed. Our Homecoming Queen was Ellen Marshall. Riding in on a circus wagon, the queen and her court kept tradition alive in their formals and with bouquets of flowers.

Spring semester came faster this year than in any previous one, as we were finally in the homestretch. It went so fast, and yet you never thought it would end. Everyone exchanged graduation pictures, and last-minute cap and gown fees were paid at 5 p.m. on that deadline day. Senioritis struck once again as the year drew to a close with some seniors spending more time out of school than in. Finals came, and then the big day—GRADUATION. Some left with smiles, some with tears, and some with a little of both. The end was here, but not really an end. Actually, a new beginning.

Class Of '74

The Class of '74, more commonly known around Vikesville as juniors, threw themselves into many activities as the largest group on campus rightfully should. In the beginning of the year, Homecoming drew a large following with the construction of the juniors' castle, while the first semester ended with a sucker sale and a bottle drive, both of which derived a pittance to pay off the bills. The semester break saw seven energenic souls vie for the class presidency, with Kathy Nitta coming up with the prize.

JUNIOR CLASS BOARD (l. to r.): K. Nitta, W. Judge, L. Kiriyama, R. Erspamer, D. Hartley, M. Robinson, L. Shoemaker, M. LaCass, K. Finn, D. Calender, L. Brownell, L. Danks, J. Nieves, V. Swanson, M. Connelly.

Class Of '75

From the beginning of the year, the Class of '75 was determined to be the richest organization on campus with its feverish plans to raise money.

Fall President Louis Robin led the run to the bank with the selling of programs at football games. Coincidentally, Louis' regime also was the one behind the sale of refreshments at basketball games and other Samohi activities. The fall officers reign was highlighted with the pouring of their energies into homecoming.

Not to be outdone, Craig Childress, at the head of the spring class board, "volunteered" his charges to act as the cleanup committee of the ASB Convention. With this monumental task of sanitation engineering behind them, the board spent the rest of the year looking after the welfare of the rest of the Sophomore Class.

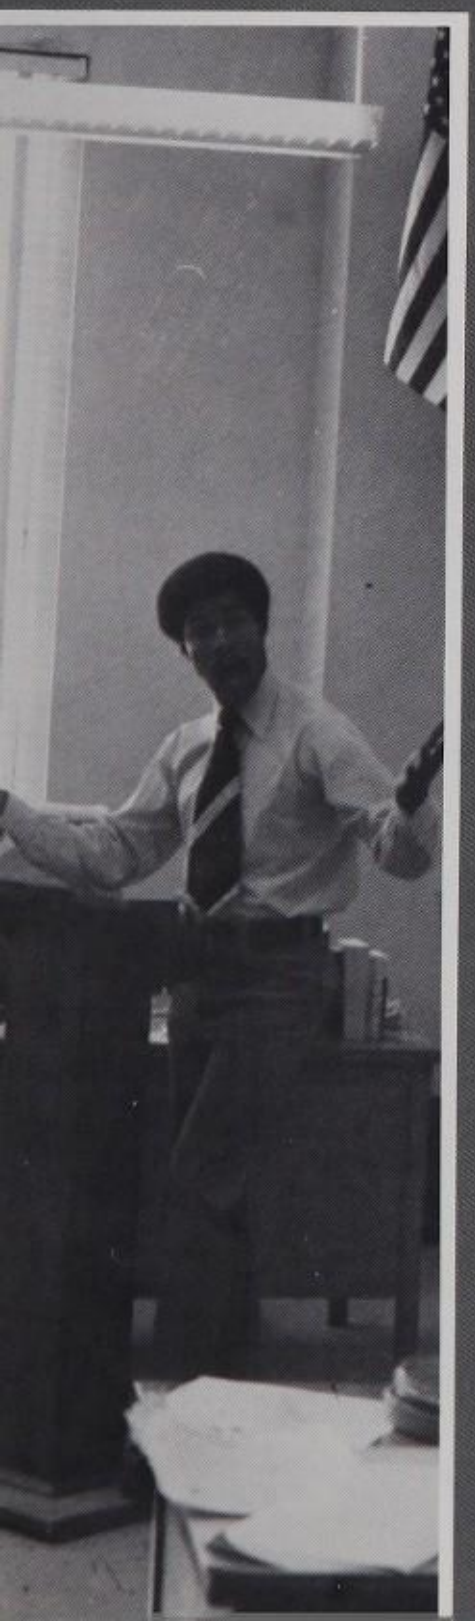
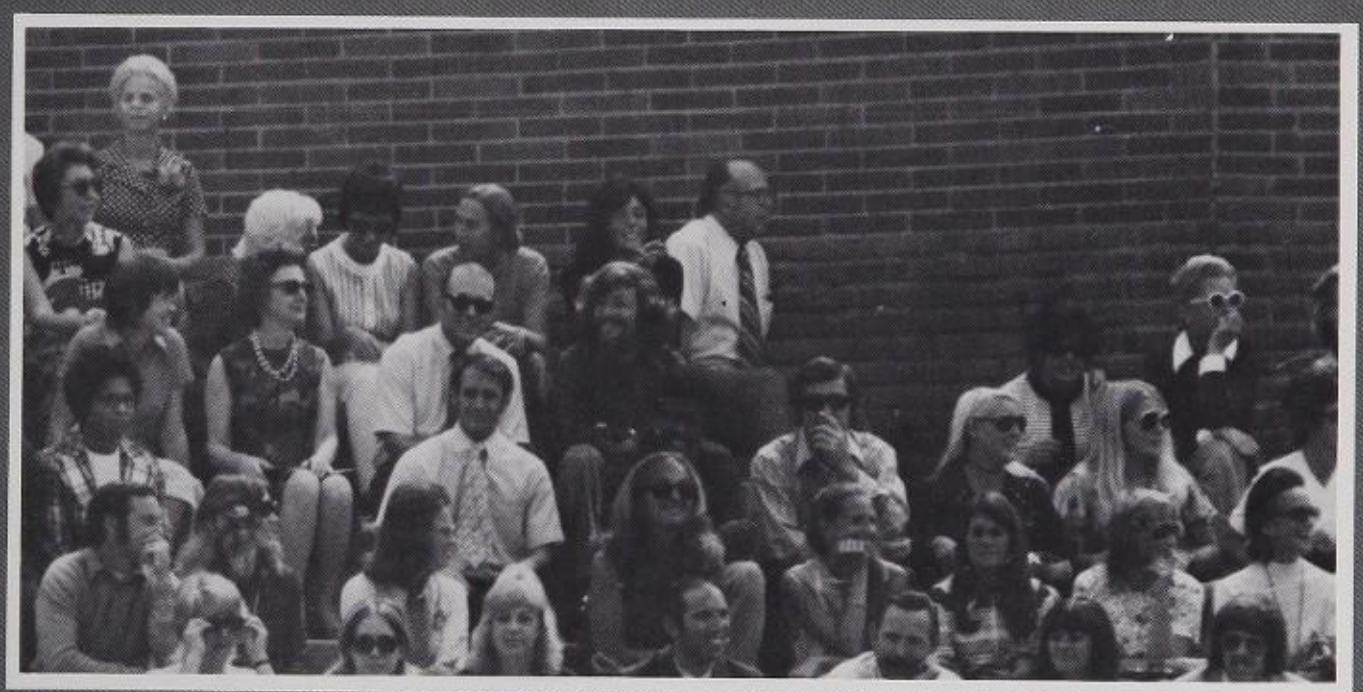
THE EDUCATORS





Principal W. Terry Pearson

Congratulations to the Class of 1973. Your leadership and contributions to Samohi over the past three years have maintained our reputation as "second to none." Many challenges and opportunities await you. I am confident you will be successful in meeting them.

I am proud of the spirit of unity and dedication of our entire student body and staff. This spirit will ensure a continued program of excellence at Samohi.

Sincerely,

W. Terry Pearson

Vice Principals

During Principal Pearson's absence, Mr. Leach assumes his responsibilities. Also under his direction are the deans, the nurses, the cafeteria and custodian staffs, and the security guards. When not overseeing the finances and management of ASB and student publications, his time is devoted to evaluating new teachers and conducting business for the Bay League Athletic Council.

The Vice Principal of Instruction, Miss Waters, supervised curriculum and the introduction of new classes designed to arouse student interest. Course modification, reinforcement of teachers, and preparation of the Master Schedule all contribute to make up Miss Waters' day.

Assisting Mr. Leach and Miss Waters is the new Vice Principal in charge of Pupil Personnel Services, Mr. Sandor Rosenfield.

English

Vocabulary building, techniques of composition, grammatical usage, social behavior, and reading skills are the basics taught by members of the English Department. These goals are accomplished through English 3 and 4 for sophomores, American Literature and Composition for juniors, and English 12 as the senior year selection. Others offered are Communications, Bible Literature, Modern Literature, Public Speaking, Creative Writing, and a host of 10-week courses such as Modern Musical Theatre, Ibsen to Sonesco, Creative Films, and Folklore - Mythology. In addition, Samohi is unique in its far - reaching Journalism program, which includes publication of an award - winning weekly newspaper, The SAMOHI, and student production of an outstanding yearbook, The NAUTILUS.

Language

Language has become an important aspect of our lives, and here at Samohi it is strongly stressed. Latin, Spanish, French, and German are the languages offered. The Samohi language lab is one of the best in the country, and is supervised by Mrs. Irene DeMers and Mrs. Tomi Perry, while Mr. Forrest Freed is the Language Department chairman.

Social Studies

Samohi students are offered a wide range of courses to choose from in the Social Studies Department. The classes are all designed to educate in the history and political environment of this country, with the hope of making students more aware and increase their interest in the world around them. Sophomores can choose from Asian Studies, Anthropogeography, and Urban, Environmental, Political - Cultural, or World - Atlas geography courses. The juniors may select Black Studies, Chicano Studies, California History, or Contending Forces in American History. The rights and responsibilities of citizenship are the benefits of such senior classes as Consumer Economics, Modern European History, and Psychology.

Math

In addition to the many basic courses, the Math Department at Samohi offers several college - level classes, such as calculus and probability. And there are also a number of electives — information science, computer programming, and others. Those students going into engineering, navigation, and accounting are provided with a sound foundation through the training they receive in logic and the basics of problem - solving, thanks to the sincere dedication of the Math Department.

Science

Biology, Chemistry, Physiology, Earth Science, and Physics are all offered by the Science Department, with students instructed in areas ranging from the functions of the body to the energy of masses. Samohi is quite fortunate to have the outstanding laboratory facilities available for use in experiments that are often very extensive. And with today's increasingly technological world and the greater emphasis on ecology, a knowledge of science is becoming more and more important to students who are preparing for their futures.

Business

Students pursuing a career in the business world find Samohi business courses invaluable. Economics, Salesmanship, Merchandising, and Work Experience were offered this year, as well as typing. New business machines were helpful, including ESL typing, which was especially important to career - seekers from different cultural backgrounds.

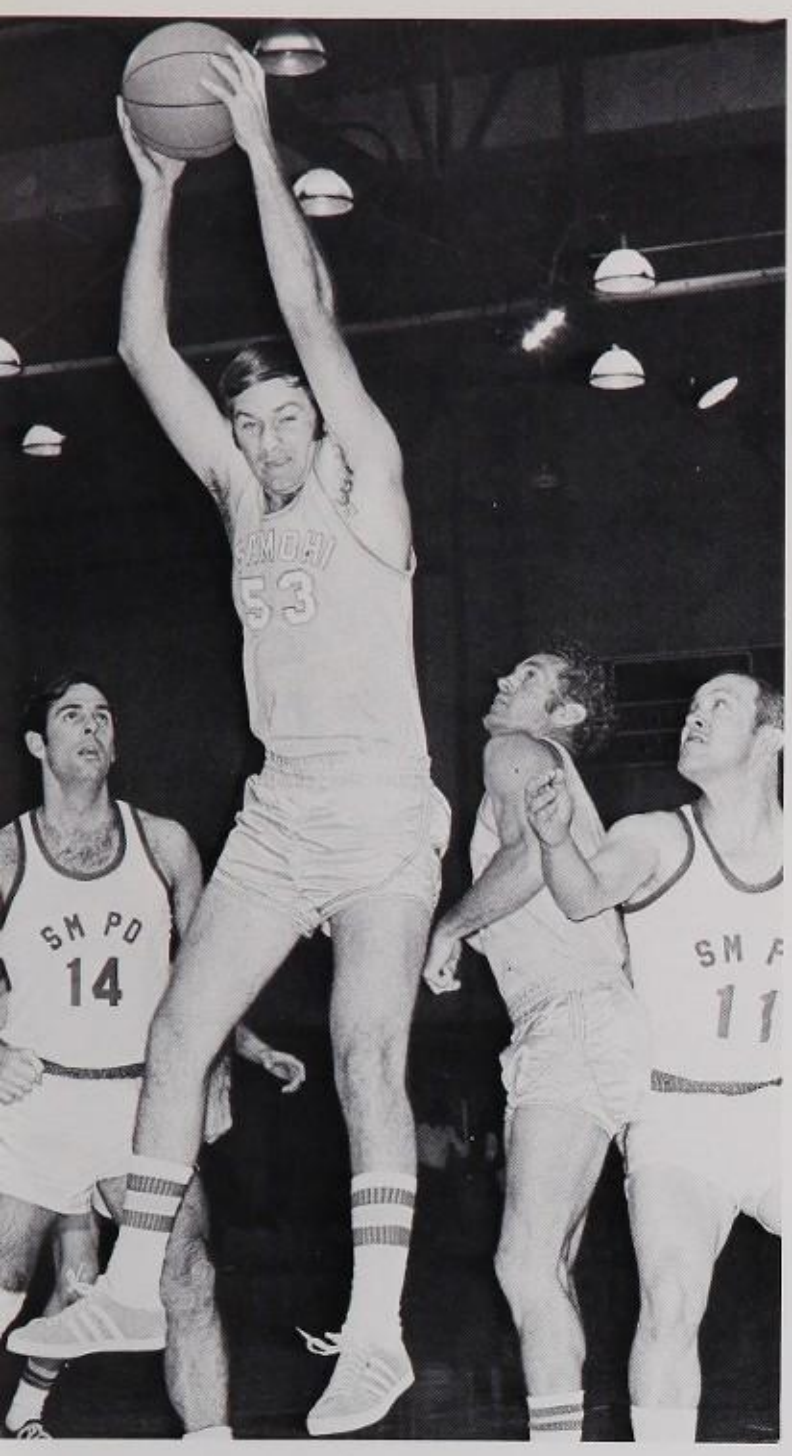
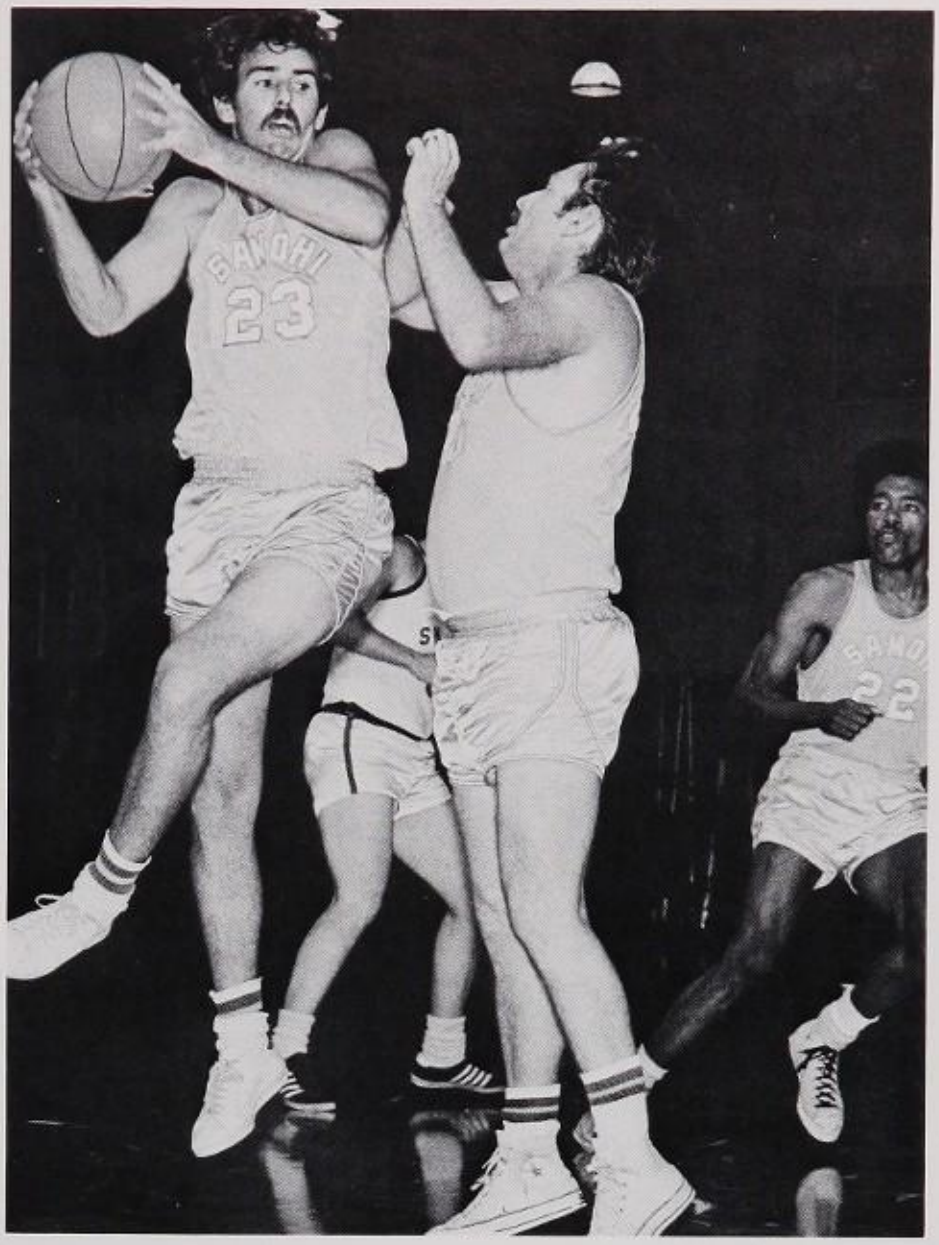
Mr. Tim Travers (44) tries to steal a rebound as Mr. Don Sealy attacks from rear.

Mr. Skip Thomas gets butchered under the basket as Mr. Tim Travers (44), Mr. Bob Coulter (43), and Mr. Mike Vincent offer assistance.

Crawling on the floor, Mr. Ken Petersen cries, "Where's my contact lens." as the ball rolls out of bounds.



Mr. Jim O'Keefe grimaces as he grabs rebound for faculty, as Mr. Don Steere looks on.

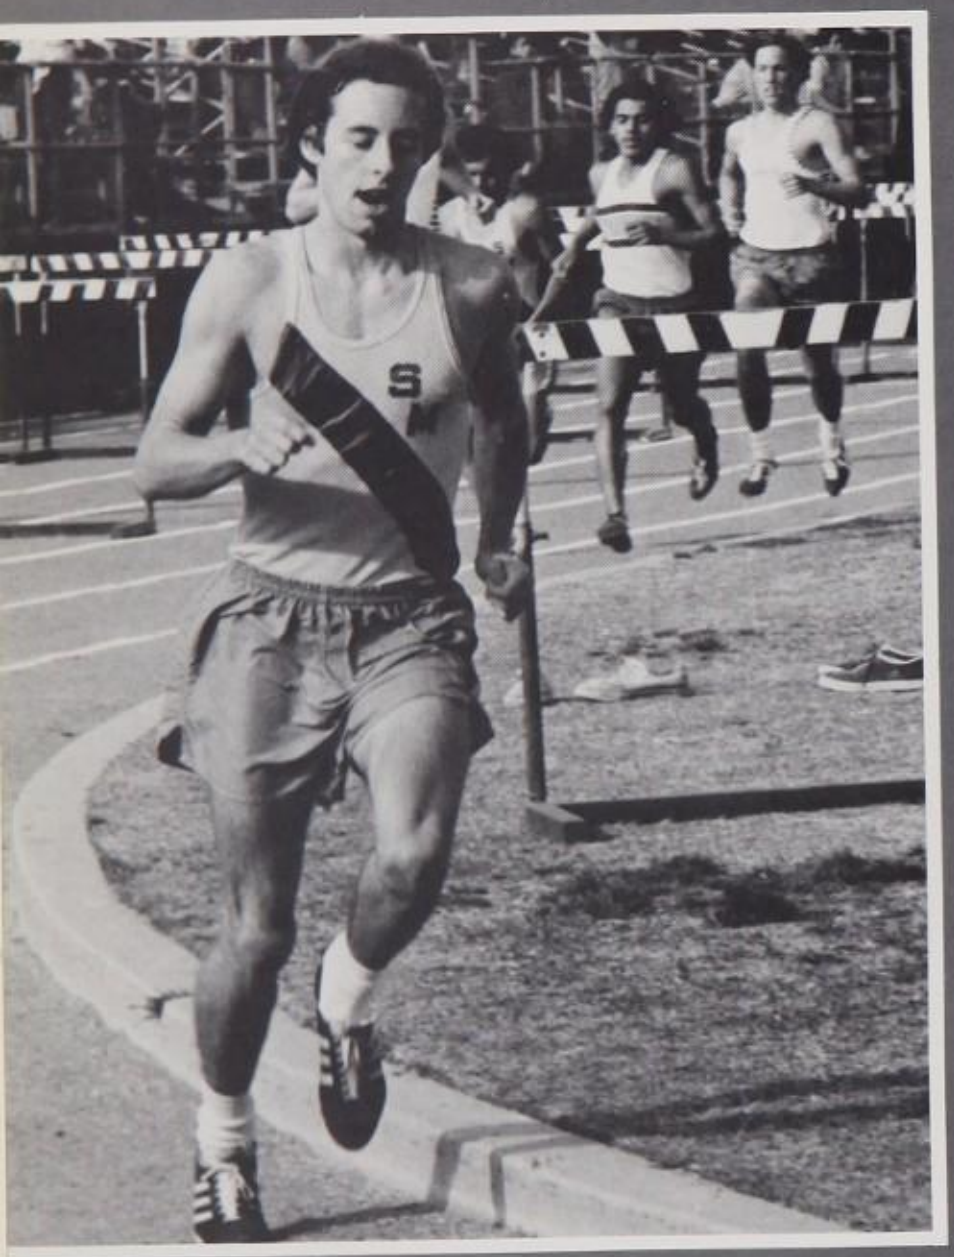


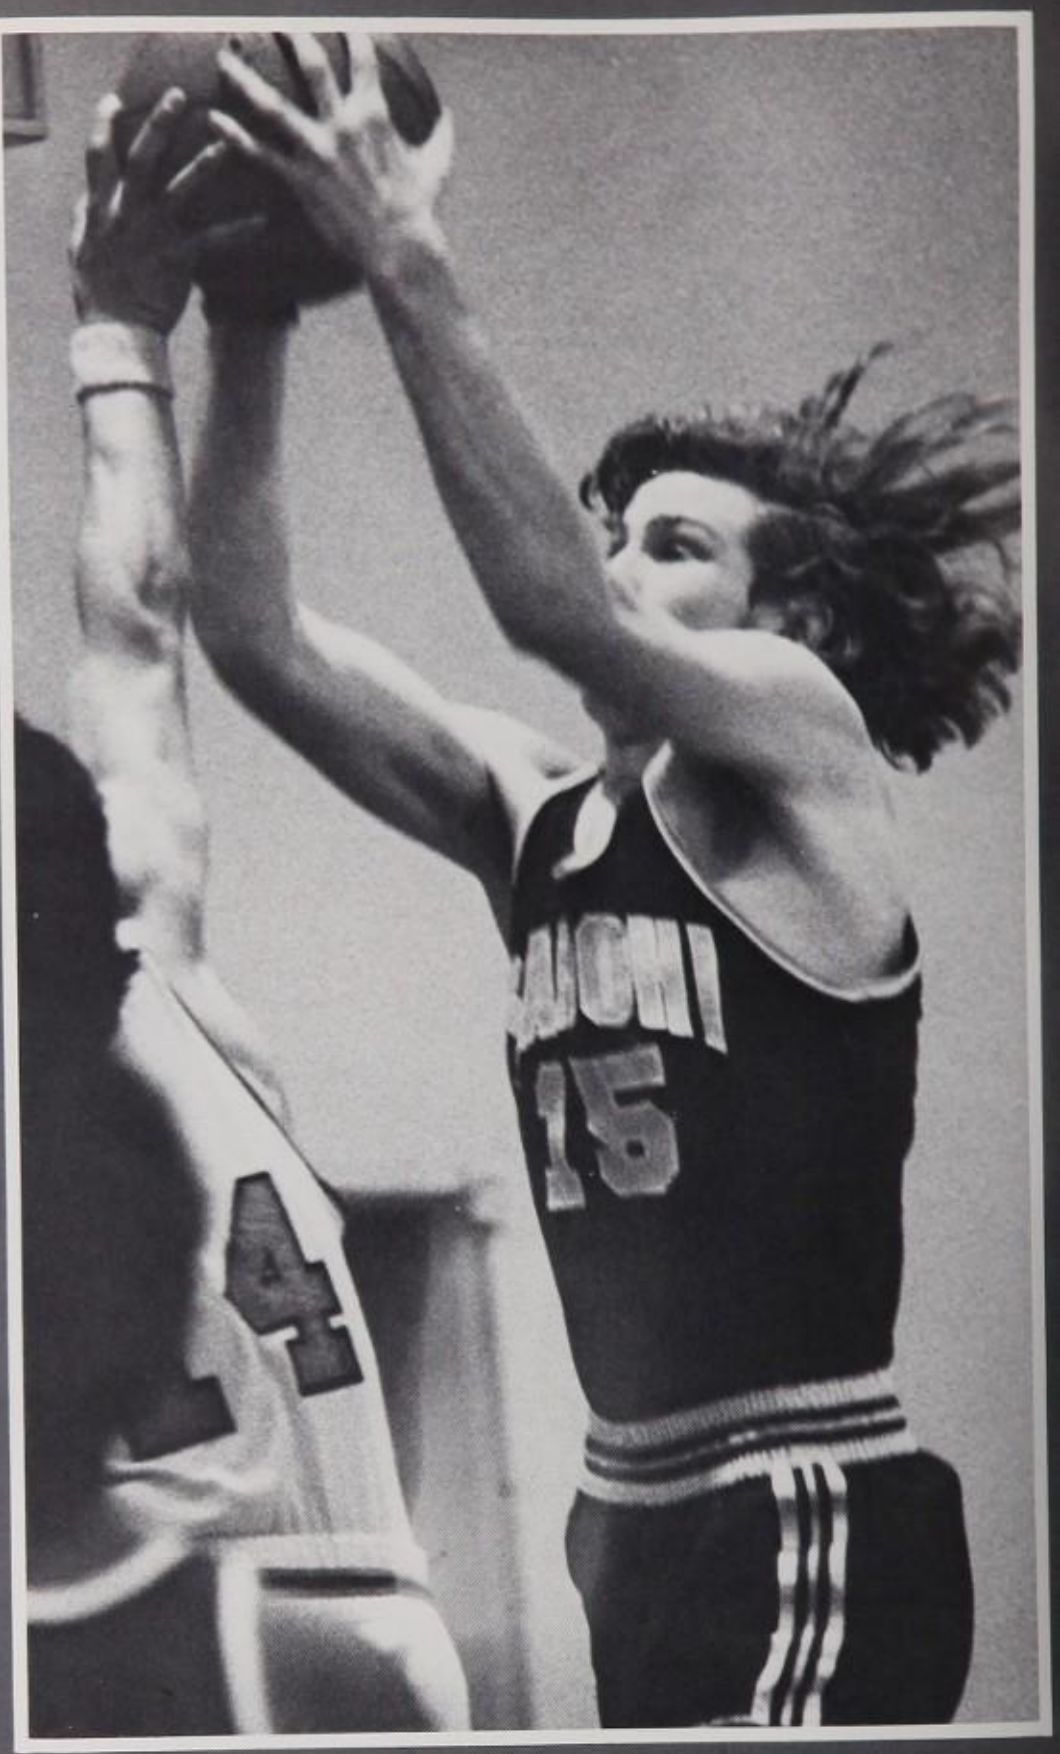
Baseball Coach Don Sealy "flies through the air with the greatest of ease," with Mr. Bob Coulter and Mr. Skip Thomas watching his acrobatics.

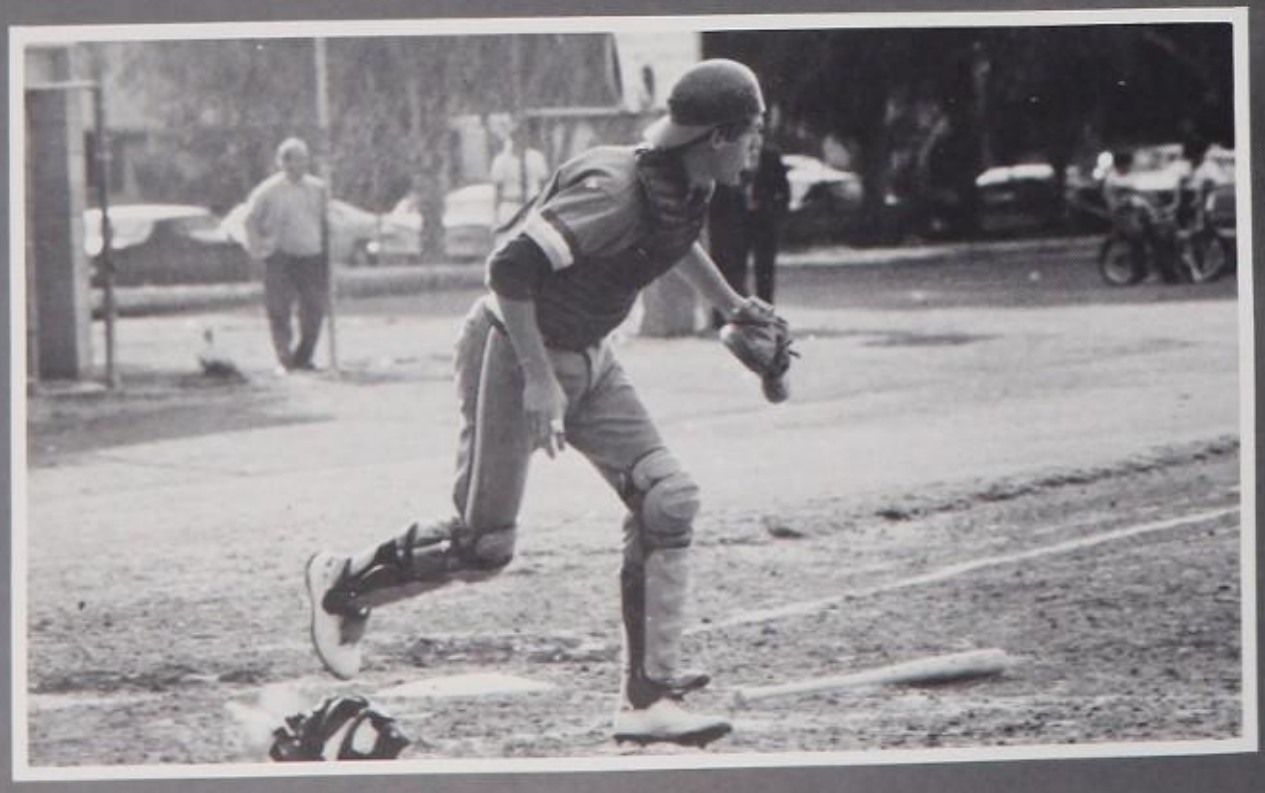
Faculty Sports

With football season in high-gear, the faculty took a break, and played a benefit basketball game against the Santa Monica Police Department. The Samohi teachers rolled to an easy victory over the incompetent policemen. At halftime, the faculty enjoyed the highlight of their lives as they were entertained in a game between the Playboy Bunnies and the disc jockeys from KXTZ. The teachers watched intently, but managed to recover in time for the second half. Leading the leering faculty were Mr. Ken Petersen, Mr. Jim O'Keefe, Mr. Dick Beede, and Mr. Skip Thomas with his Elgin Baylor - like moves.

Mr. Mike "Tinkerbell" Griswold shows his form as he flits past two unsuspecting policemen.







THE COMPETITORS

MEMBERS (bottom, l. to r.): Dan Morgan, Terry Braschi, Steve Beverly, Gary Sato, Brian Buffer, Cy Bolton, Tim Gonzales, Doug Steere, Frencho Valenzuela, Joe Diaz, Jim Cook; (row 2, l. to r.): Coach Don Sealy, Darryl Young, Joe Christian, Ray Smith, Bob Ryan, Jerry Rupp, Dennis Smith, Charles Martin, Rob Peach, Cam Hill, Lewis Grabhorn, Rex Pierson, Mike Jones; (row 3, l. to. r.): Coach Mike Griswold, David Scott, Anthony Williams, Derrick Thurman, Joe Willis, Dennis Thurman, Cliff Smith, Robert Allison, Bruce Davis, Ainslie Washington, Wes Harris, Dennis Iverson, Coach Tebb Kusserow; (top, l. to r.): Dwight Davis, Joe de la Puente, Ken Peterson, Bruce Gaddis, Alex Garcia, John Cataldo, Craig Marine, Andre Hoffman, Paul Fontenot, Jeff Trainoff, Jeff Hickey, Steve Yoshinaga.

The 1972 varsity football team showed a great amount of ability throughout the season. Under the guidance of first-year head coach Dr. Tebb Kusserow, the Vikings accomplished things unexpected of them at the outset of the season. The team rolled to a 3-1 preseason record, and almost upset fourth-ranked Pasadena, before bowing 24-22. In league, the team looked great in beating both South and North Torrance badly, and received a No. 10 ranking in CIF. Then, they were upset by a tough Torrance squad, and lost the next encounter to eventual league champion West Torrance. The Vikes ended the season on a high note with a 13-10 victory over league-leader Centennial, to deny the Apaches the playoffs and a share of the title. As usual, Samohi had many outstanding football players who received awards for their exceptional ability. Receiving awards were: Linebacker Rob Peach; All-CIF, All-Bay League, All-West Side Lineman of the Year, All-Bay Area; Quarterback Dennis Thurman; All-CIF, All-Bay League, All-West Side, All-Bay Area; Offensive Guard Dan Morgan; All-Bay League, All-West Side, All-Bay Area; Defensive Back Ainslee Washington; All-Bay League, All-West Side, All-Bay Area, and Defensive End Cy Bolton; All-Bay League, All-Bay Area.

Split end Tony Raymo hauls in pass for a long gain.

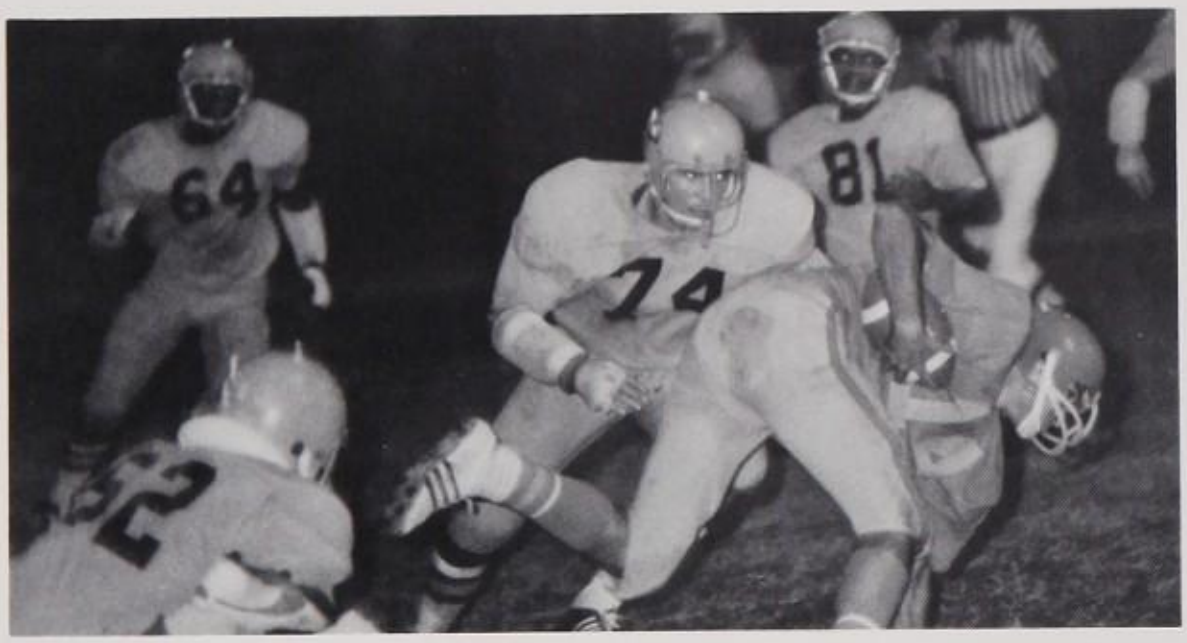
Halfback Steve Beverly powers his way into the end zone with a great second-effort.



Viking defense—Robert Allison (62), Charles Martin (64), Rex Pierson (74), and Darryl Young (81)—moves in on opposing ball carrier.

Linebacker Rob Peach, who made over 100 tackles this year, puts the stop to Torrance running back. Looking on are Robert Allison (62), Dan Morgan (61), and Ainslee Washington (10).

Fullback Anthony Williams goes over the top for a touchdown as offensive line moves out Hawthorne defenders.

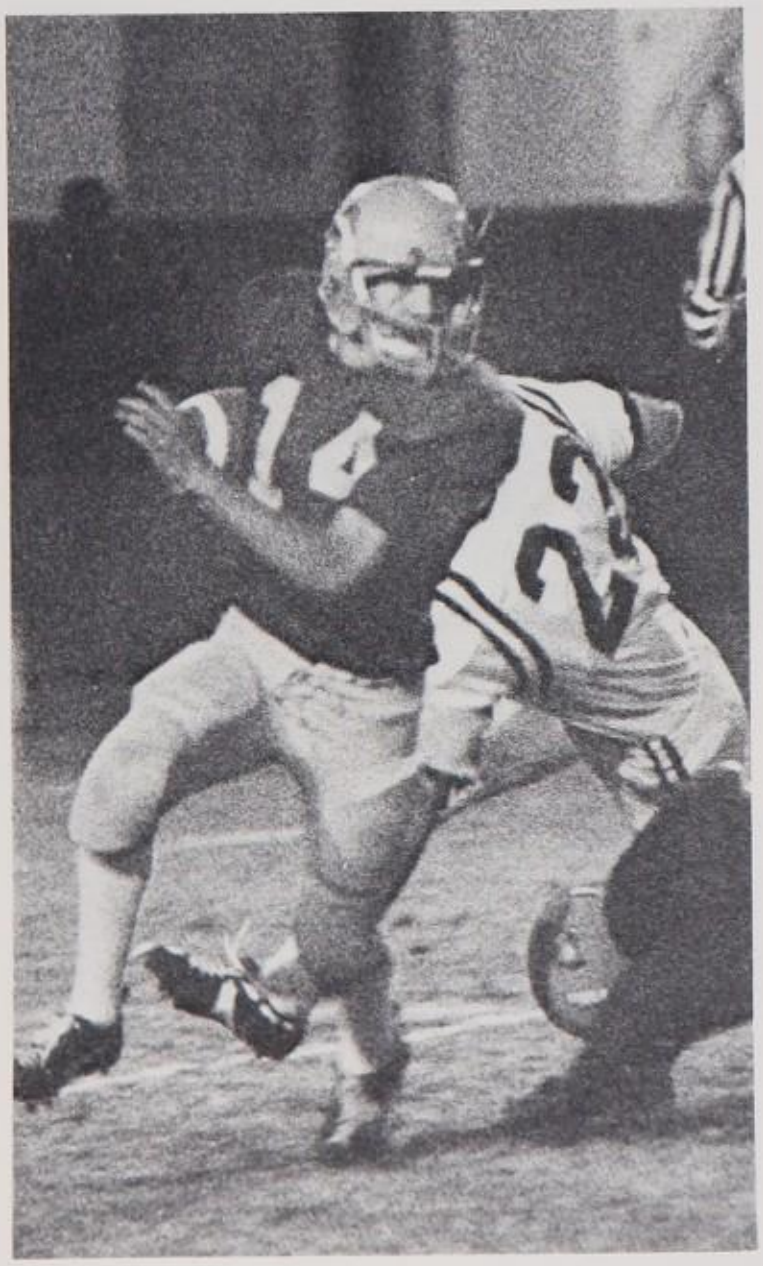
Dan Morgan (on ground) and Joe Willis bring down Centennial runner as Rex Pierson (74) and Robert Allison (62) help out.

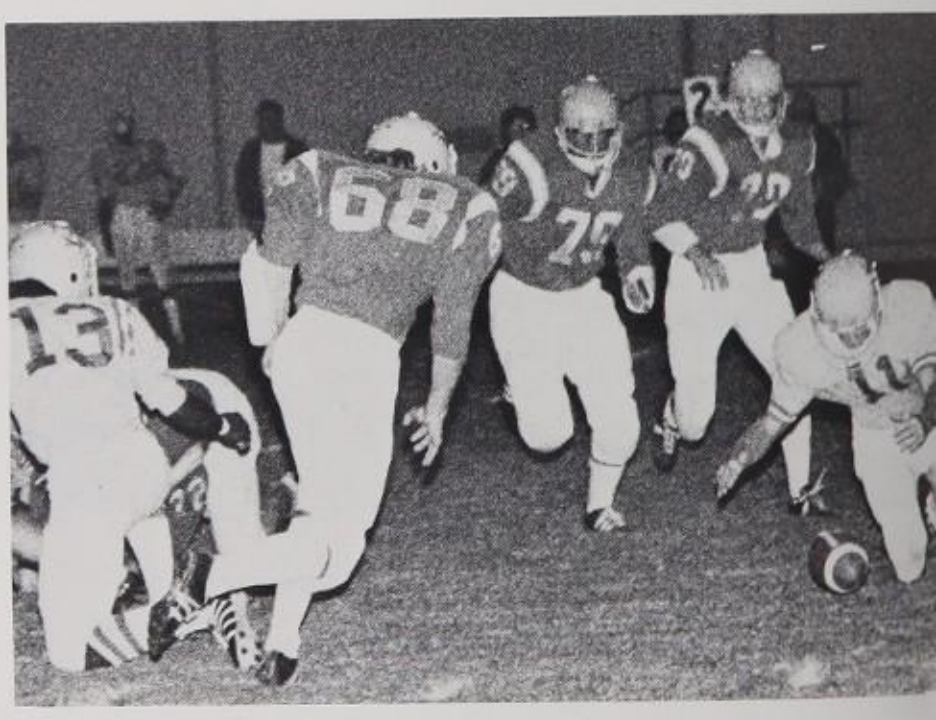
Junior Varsity

Although the Junior Varsity went through a somewhat disappointing season, a vast improvement was made during the year. The 2-7 overall record is not a very good indication of the type of JV team that represented Samo. The Vikes provided stiff competition for all teams during Bay League play and remained close in all of them, but the breaks just seemed to be with the other team. Head Coach Mike Griswold capably trained many varsity hopefuls, and they should help provide Samohi with an excellent varsity team next year. The only victory the JV's experienced came at the expense of West Torrance, as the other victory was a result of a forfeit from Inglewood. Leading the JV's in their victory was quarterback Doug Steere, who threw three touchdown passes against West, as the Vikes turned in their best effort of the year. Also leading the Vikes were Wesley Harris, Derrick Thurman, and Frencho Valenzuela. There was no Junior Varsity team picture taken, as they were included in the varsity picture.

Wesley Harris (14) is brought down after one of his timely receptions.



Frencho Valenzuela (14) heads upfield for a large gain in pre-season action.



An alert Doug Steere (11) falls on a fumble in backfield during play early in the season.

Sophomore

The Sophomore football team experienced a fine season during the 1972 season, paced by standouts Tim D'Angelo, Shaun Garland, and Jeff Hickey. The team rolled to an 8-1 overall record and a Bay League championship. Head Coach Irv Kasten, along with his assistants Dave Prowett and Roy Woods, developed a lot of individual talent and molded it into a strong unit, capable of doing excellent things on any given afternoon.

Running back Mark Manriquez breaks a tackle as he heads upfield.

Cross Country

Because of the great stamina required, cross country demands as much, or more, conditioning than any other sport. The Samohi distance-runners were led in this pursuit by the brother tandem of Curtis and Steve Beck, as the Vikes ran up and down the slopes of Will Rogers State Park at oftentimes blazing speeds. Coached by Mr. Paul Kerry, who ran cross country himself while in high school, the squad finished in a tie for first place. Even though Samohi was nosed out in the championship meet at the end of the season, the school was awarded a share of the Bay League title because of its success in the regular dual meet competition.

John Nelson edges out runner from Torrance.

Below: Steve Gibson keeps in step as he races all alone.

Varsity Water Polo

Coached by Mr. Frank Brooks, the Samohi varsity water polo went through a somewhat disappointing season, as it compiled a 6-13 won-loss record against some stringent competition. The varsity tankers swam in the Sky League against Morningside, Beverly Hills, Aviation, Redondo, and Miraleste and sported a 2-3 league record. Things looked bright for the Vikes at the beginning of league play as they trounced Morningside, 21-10, and waltzed over Beverly Hills, 9-5, but then they suffered through three straight defeats at the hands of Aviation, Redondo, and Miraleste. Swimming their way into all-league recognition were Craig Partridge, first team, with Pete Hester and Mike Patarak being placed on the second team.

Dana Warren looks up the pool for an open teammate.

Scott Robertson sets up play at mid - pool.

JV, Sophomore Water Polo

Samohi's junior varsity and sophomore water polo teams enjoyed fine seasons, and ran up almost identical records. The JV's compiled a 9-4 record, while the sophomores countered with a 10-4 mark. In league play, the Junior Varsity defeated Morningside, Aviation and Redondo, while their two blemishes came from Miraleste, and Beverly Hills. Leading the JV's were Scott McAfee, Eric Nicholaus, and Ernie Hoover.

The sophomores were identical to the junior varsity in league play, with their victories and defeats coming from the same teams. Leading the sophomores were David Gage and Don Dorr. Both teams were coached capably by Mr. Robert Coulter.

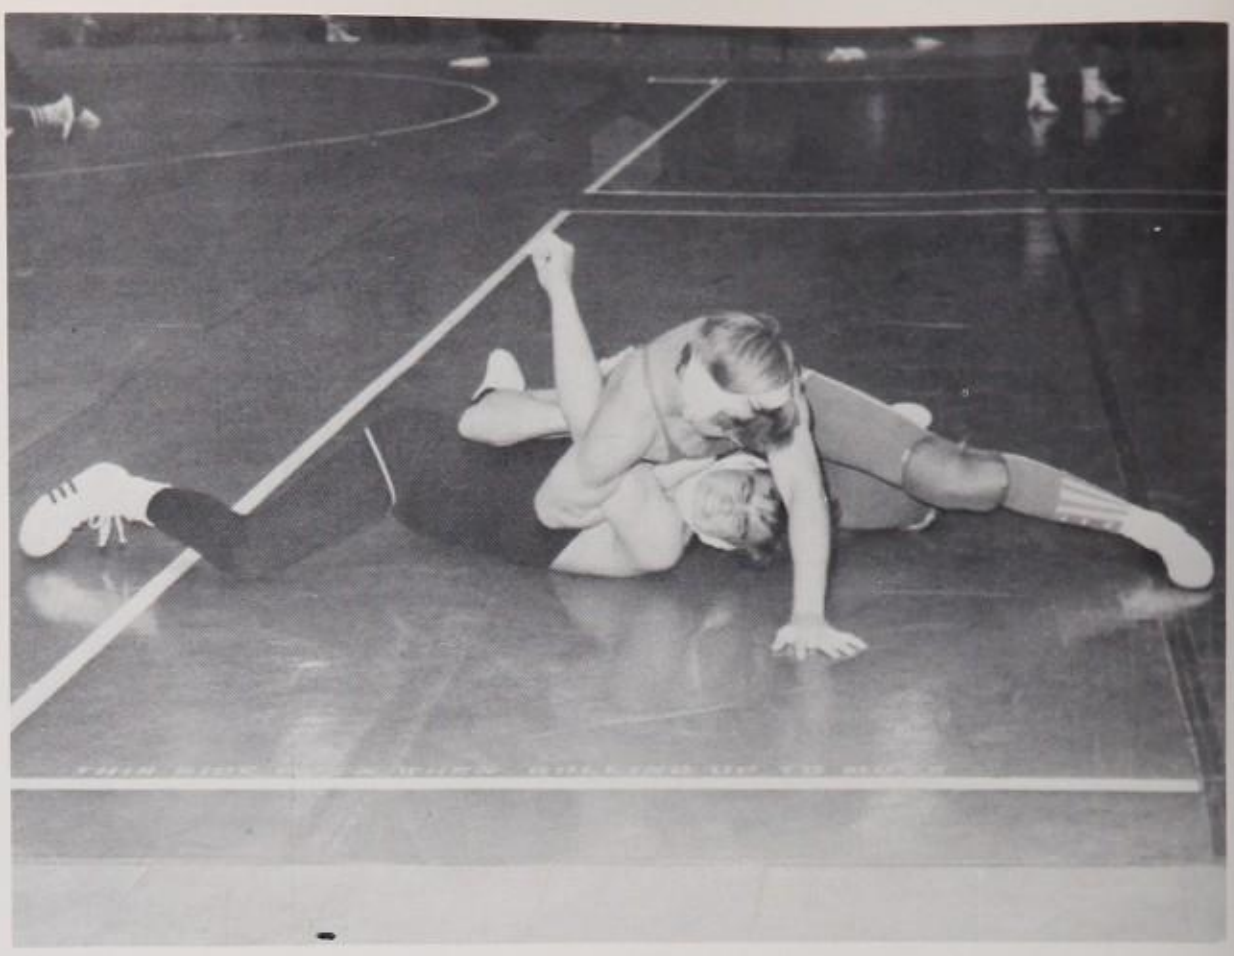
Wrestling

The Vike wrestling team got off to a slow start this year, but picked up midway into the season. The team did its best against West Torrance and Torrance. Coach Don Murphy attributed the average season to inexperience and lack of interest. Outstanding wrestlers of the season were Joe Telfair, Bobby Herron, John Luker, and Jeff DuVardo.



Varsity Captain John Luker pins an opponent from West.

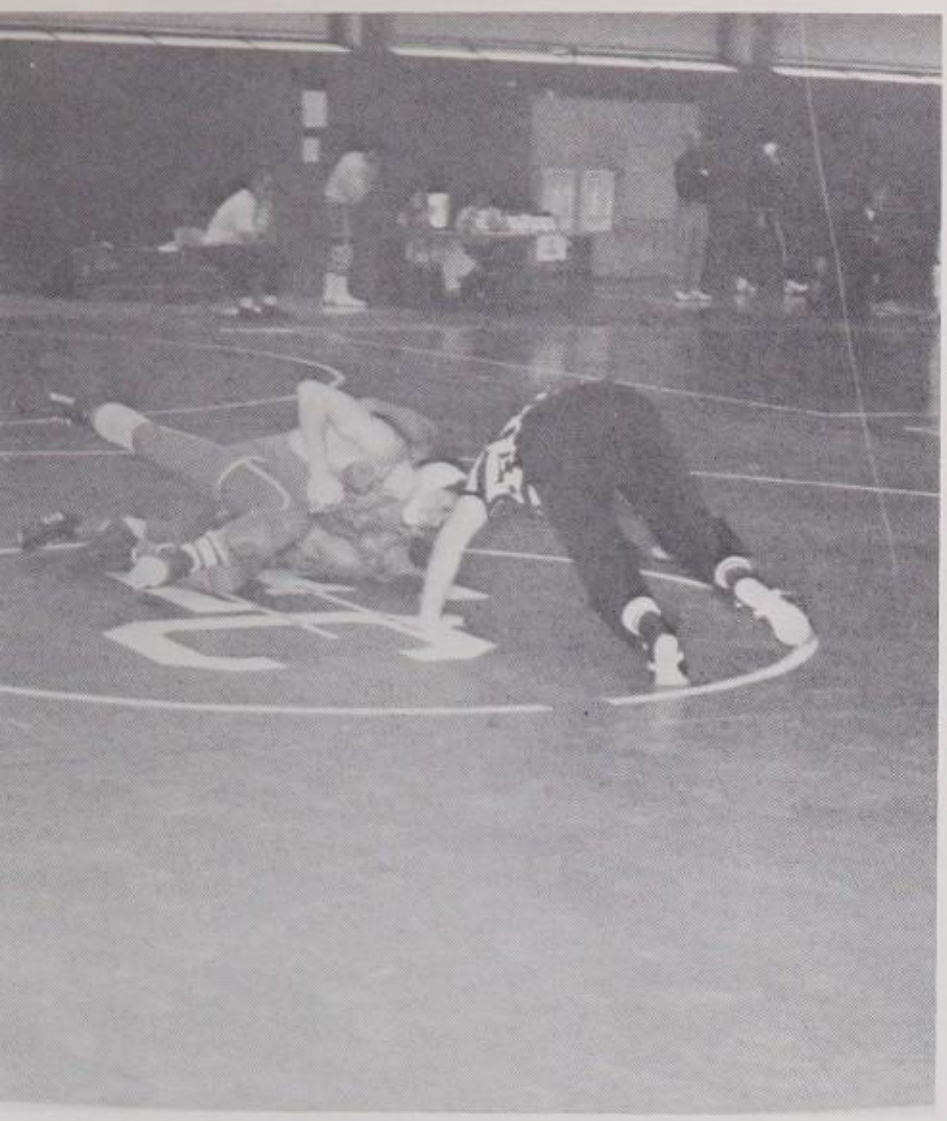
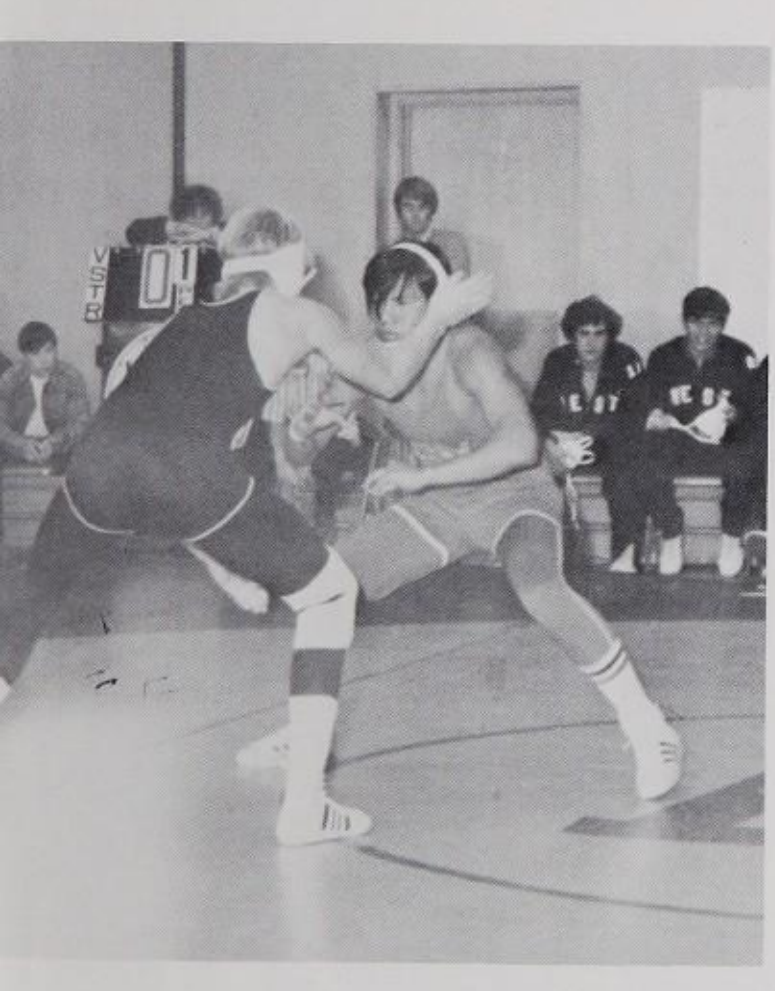
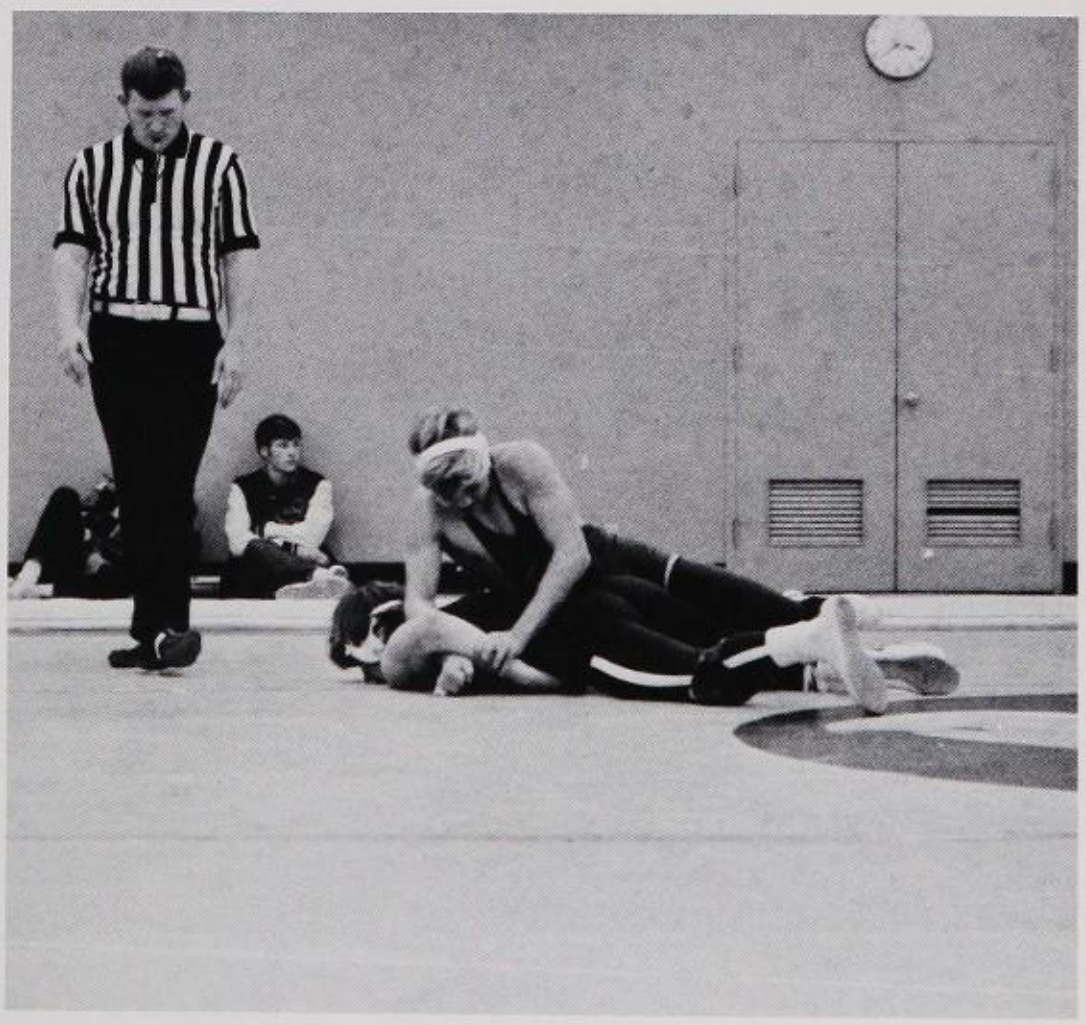
Bobby Herron wins a match.



Joe Telfair scores a stunning victory over Miraleste.



Don Palimo faces off against West Torrance.



John Luker soundly trounces a Torrance man.

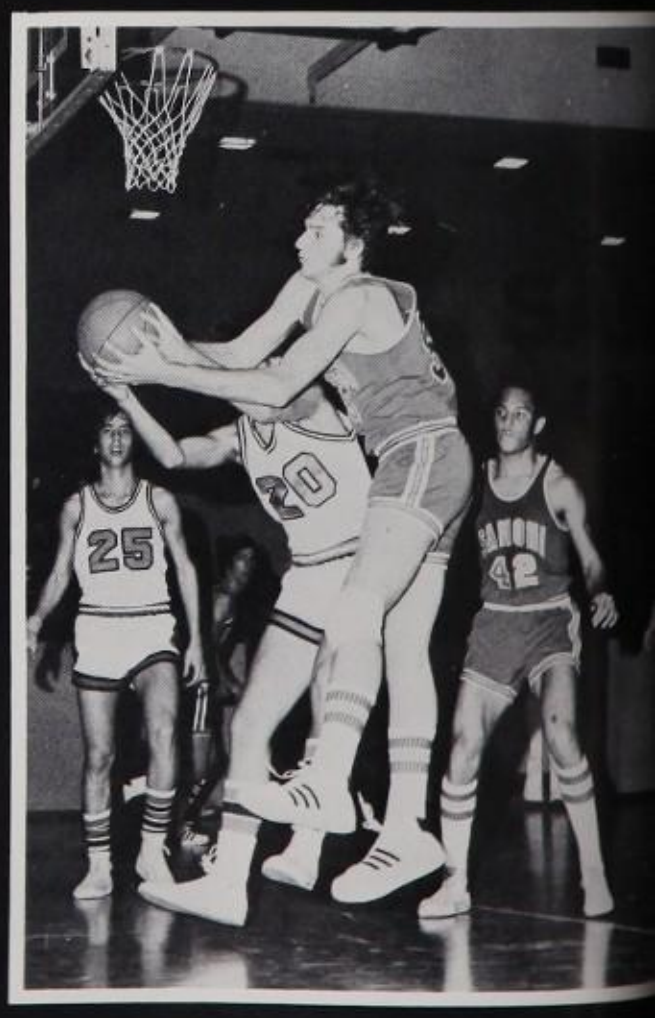
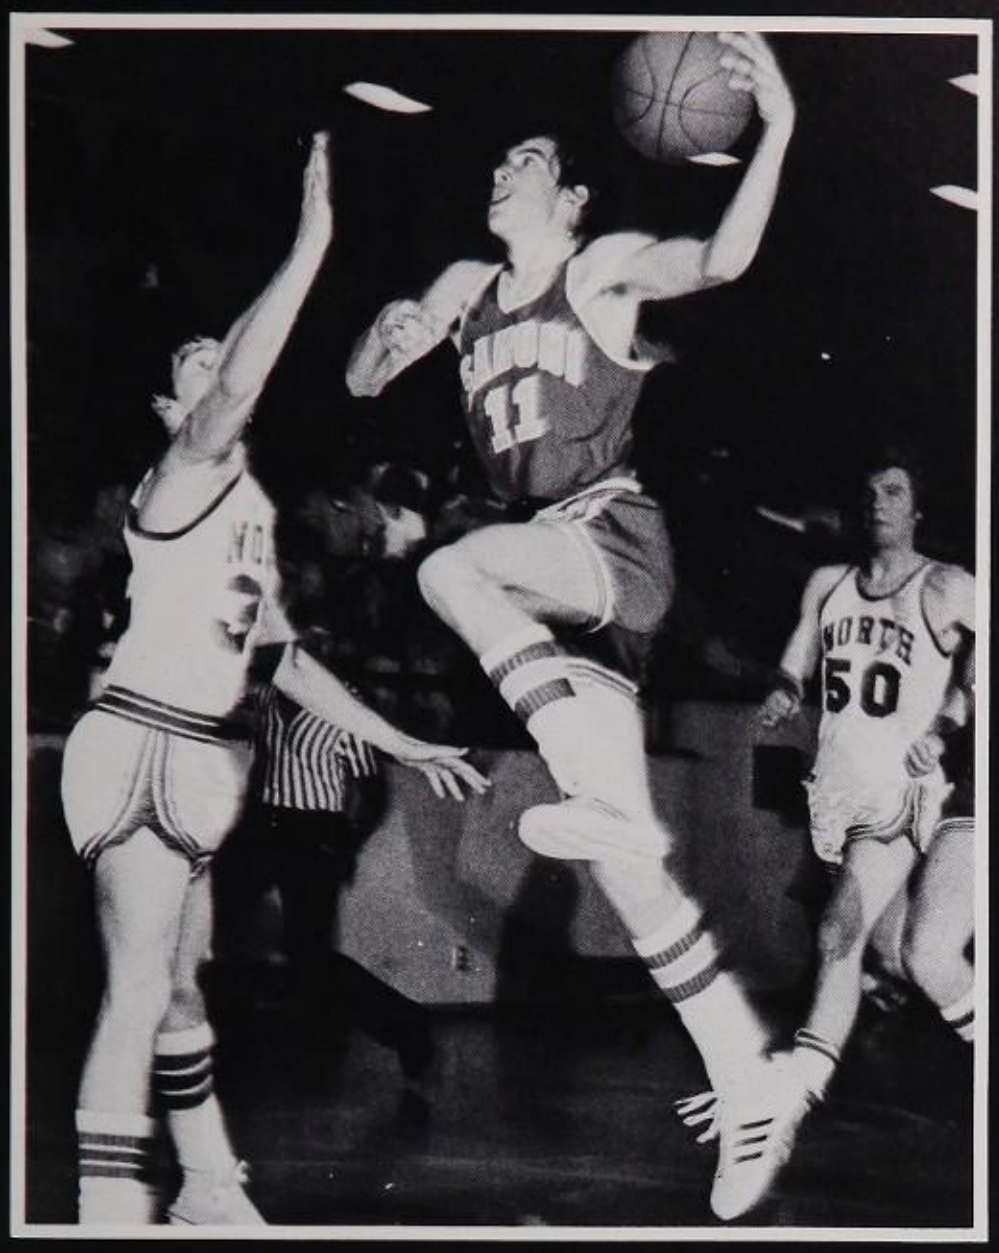
Varsity Basketball

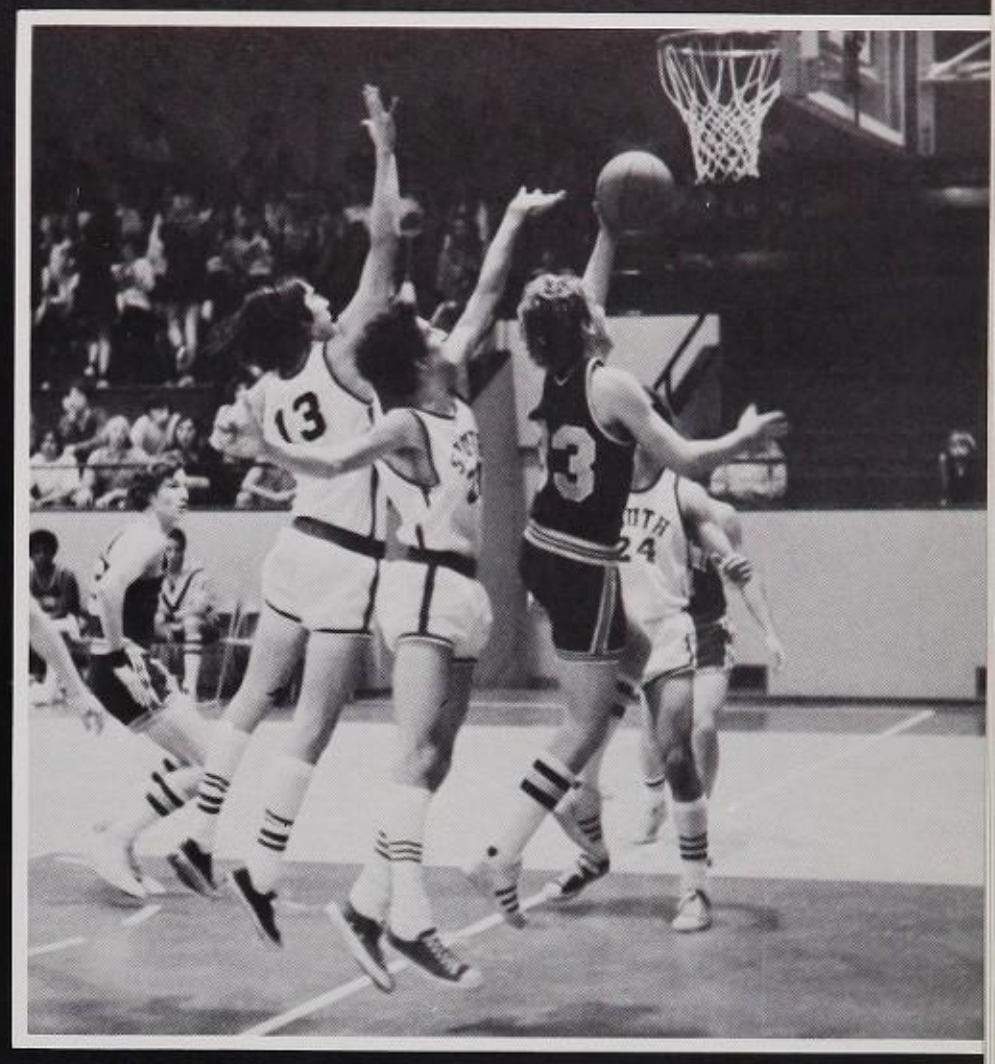
Playing its toughest schedule ever, the Samohi varsity basketball team roller-coasted its way to a 15-12 season record. The Vikes were plagued by inconsistency throughout the season, but when they were on their game, they could stay with anyone. Coached by Mr. Jim O'Keefe, the '73 cagers defeated Long Beach Poly, then ranked sixth in CIF, in the opening round of the Beverly Hills Invitational Tournament, and went on to a second-place finish. Going into Bay League competition with high hopes of grabbing the championship, the Vikes were hit with bad breaks and the London flu. Sporting a 2-1 league record, the team lost three games straight and was eliminated from contention for the championship and a playoff berth. Then, the squad finally got together and played the type of basketball it was capable of all year long with four straight victories over West, South, Torrance, and North to finish with a respectable 6-4 league mark. The final victory was especially gratifying to the basketball team for many reasons: North had beaten them twice previously in the season, it knocked the Saxons out of first place, and it was accomplished in North's gymnasium which made revenge even sweeter. The varsity was well-balanced and had eight main contributors throughout the season, and one sportswriter tabbed them as the "Magnificent Eight." They included Luke Wooden, Tony Budzyn, Tony Raymo, Mark Adams, Lee Fulkerson, Dennis Thurman, Mark Harding, and Stanley Hubbard.



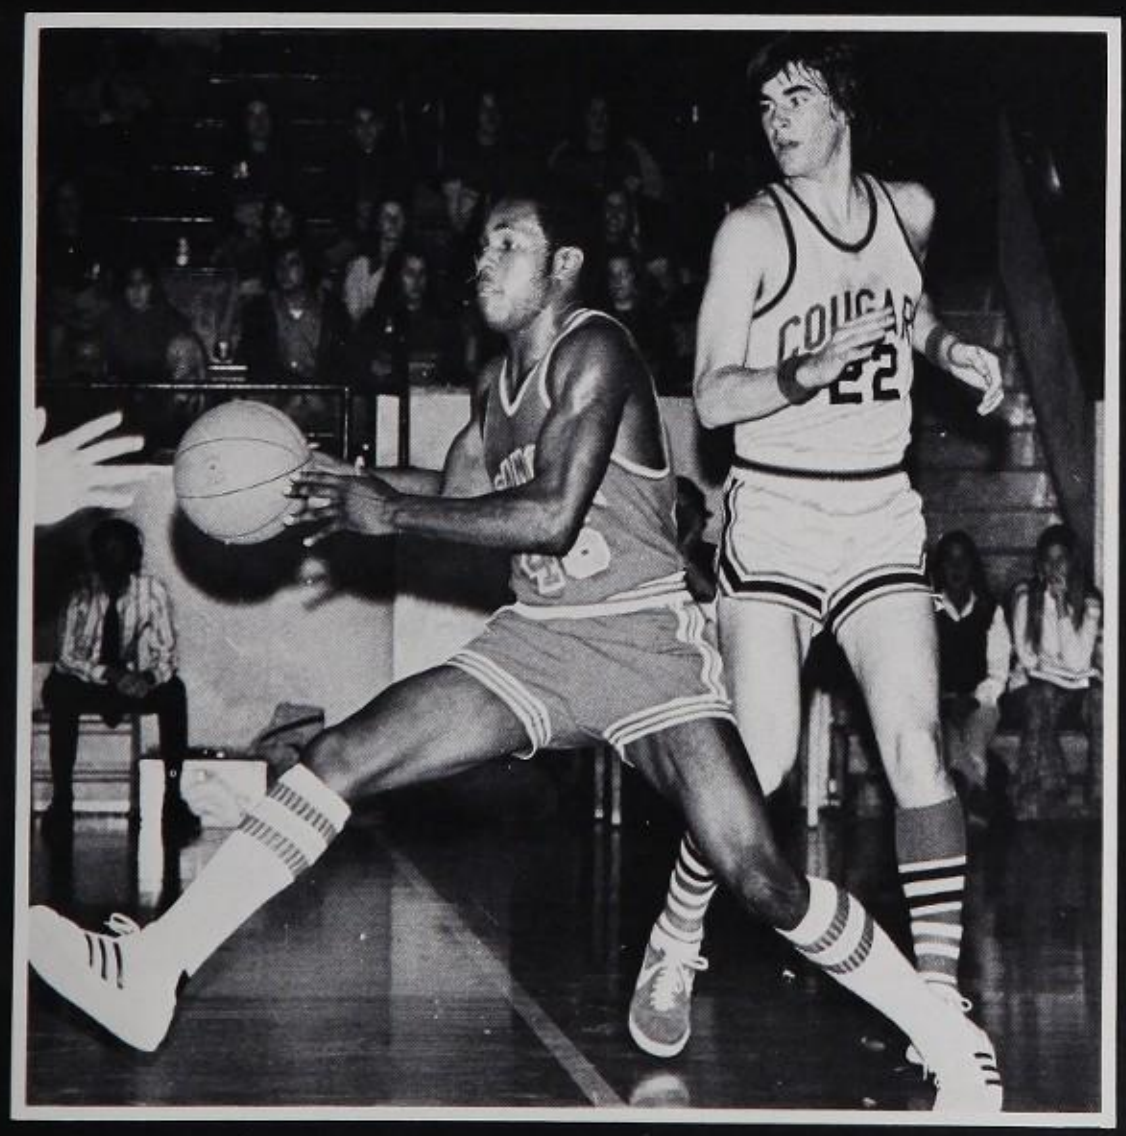
Center Mark Adams out-muscles Beverly Hills man for rebound.



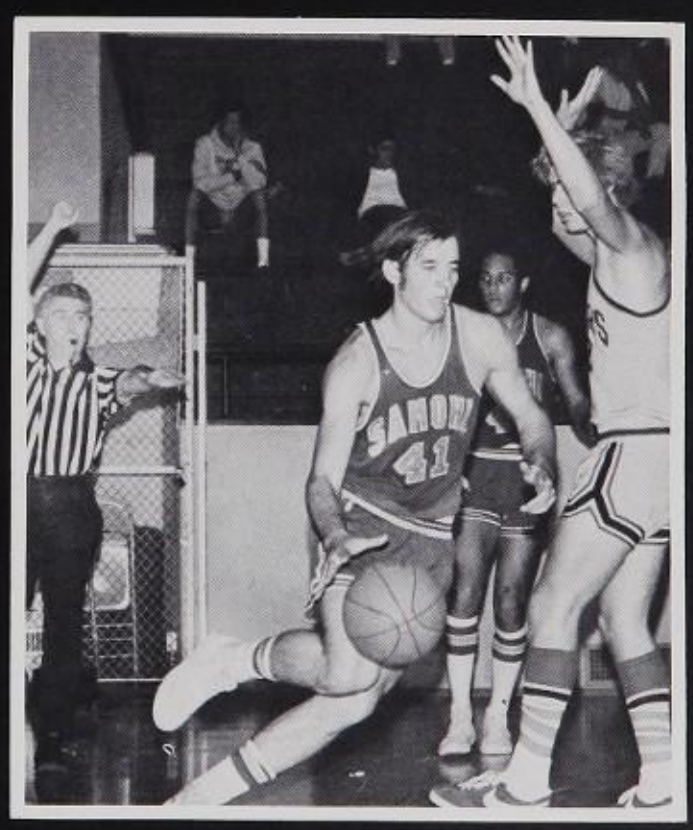
Senior guard Mark Harding leaps past Saxon defender for an easy layup.



Faking out two South defenders, forward Tony Budzyn goes all the way for a left-handed layin.

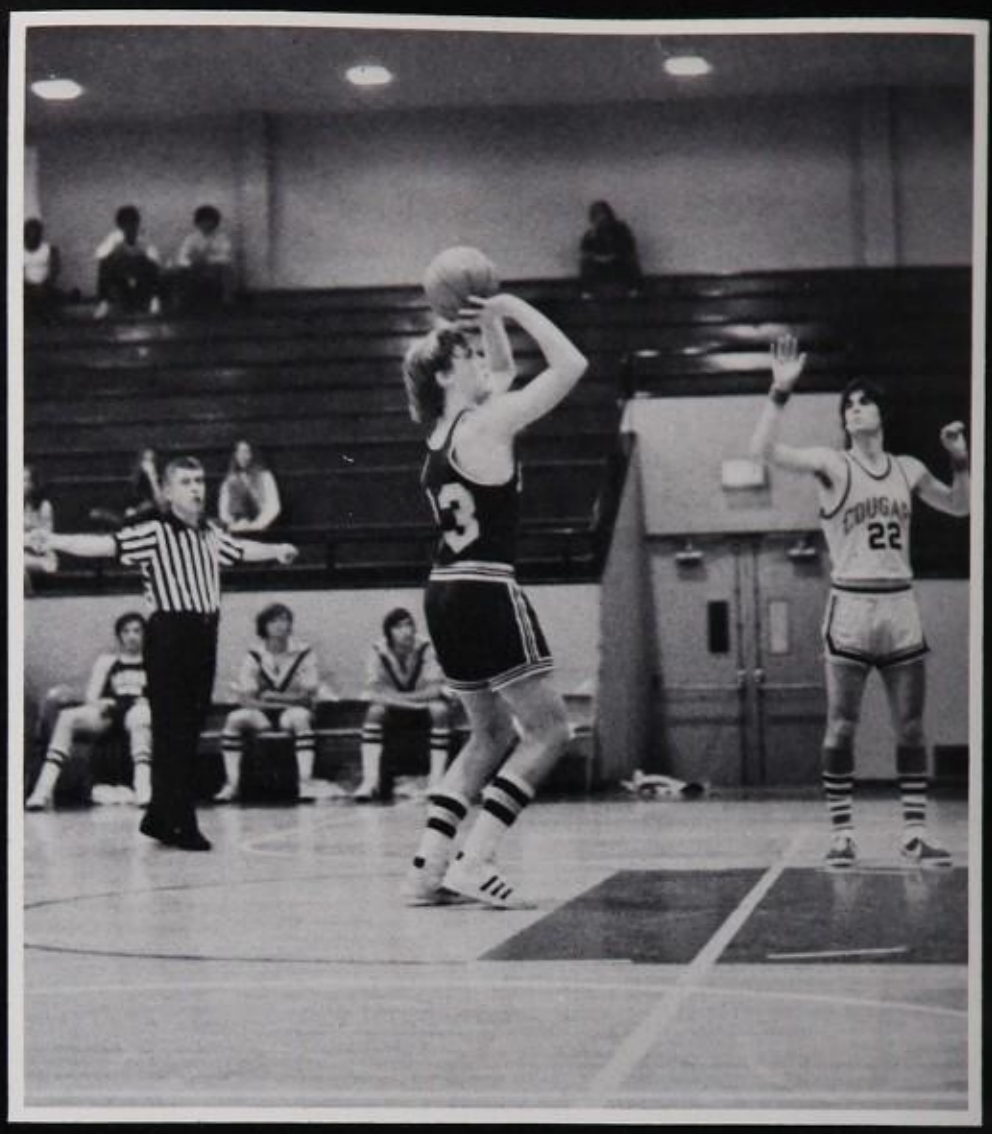


Dennis Thurman stretches as he tries to out-maneuver a mysterious hand.



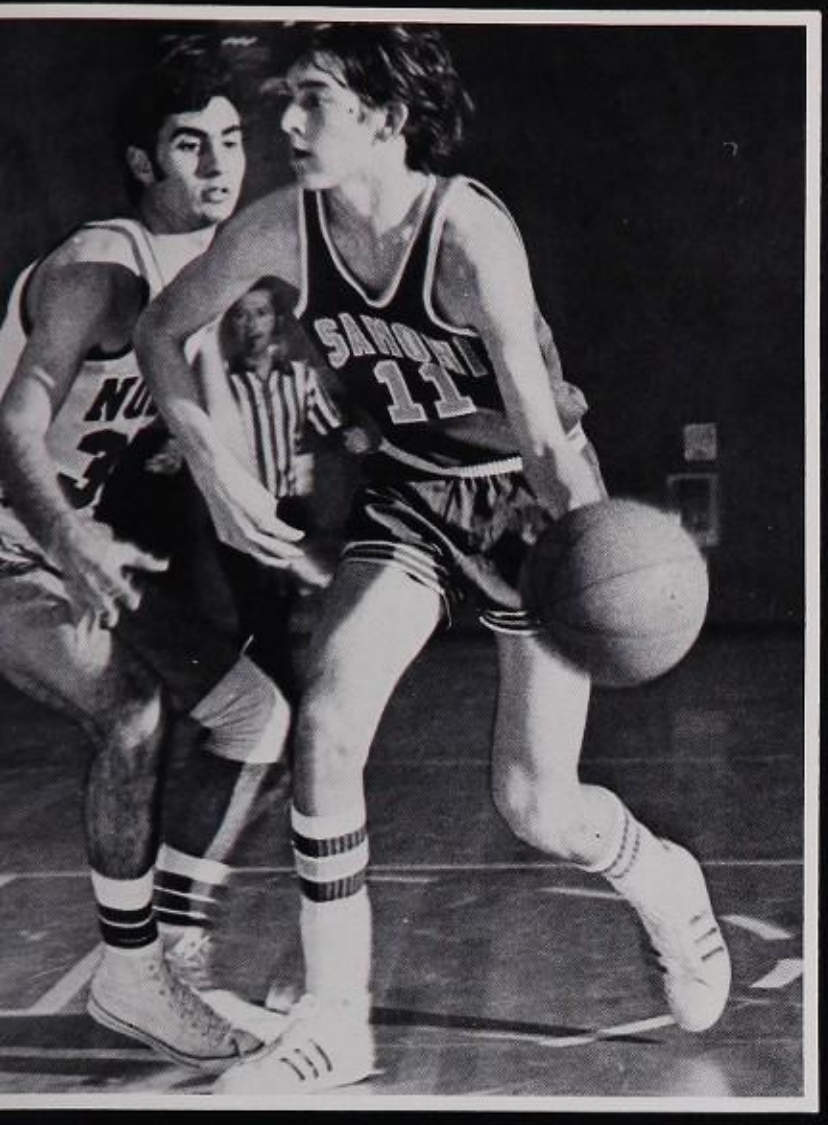
Driving the baseline, Luke Wooden is flagrantly fouled by Hawthorne player, but he was still the leading scorer on this year's squad.

Stanley Hubbard, working hard against University, was the Vikes' best defensive player all year.

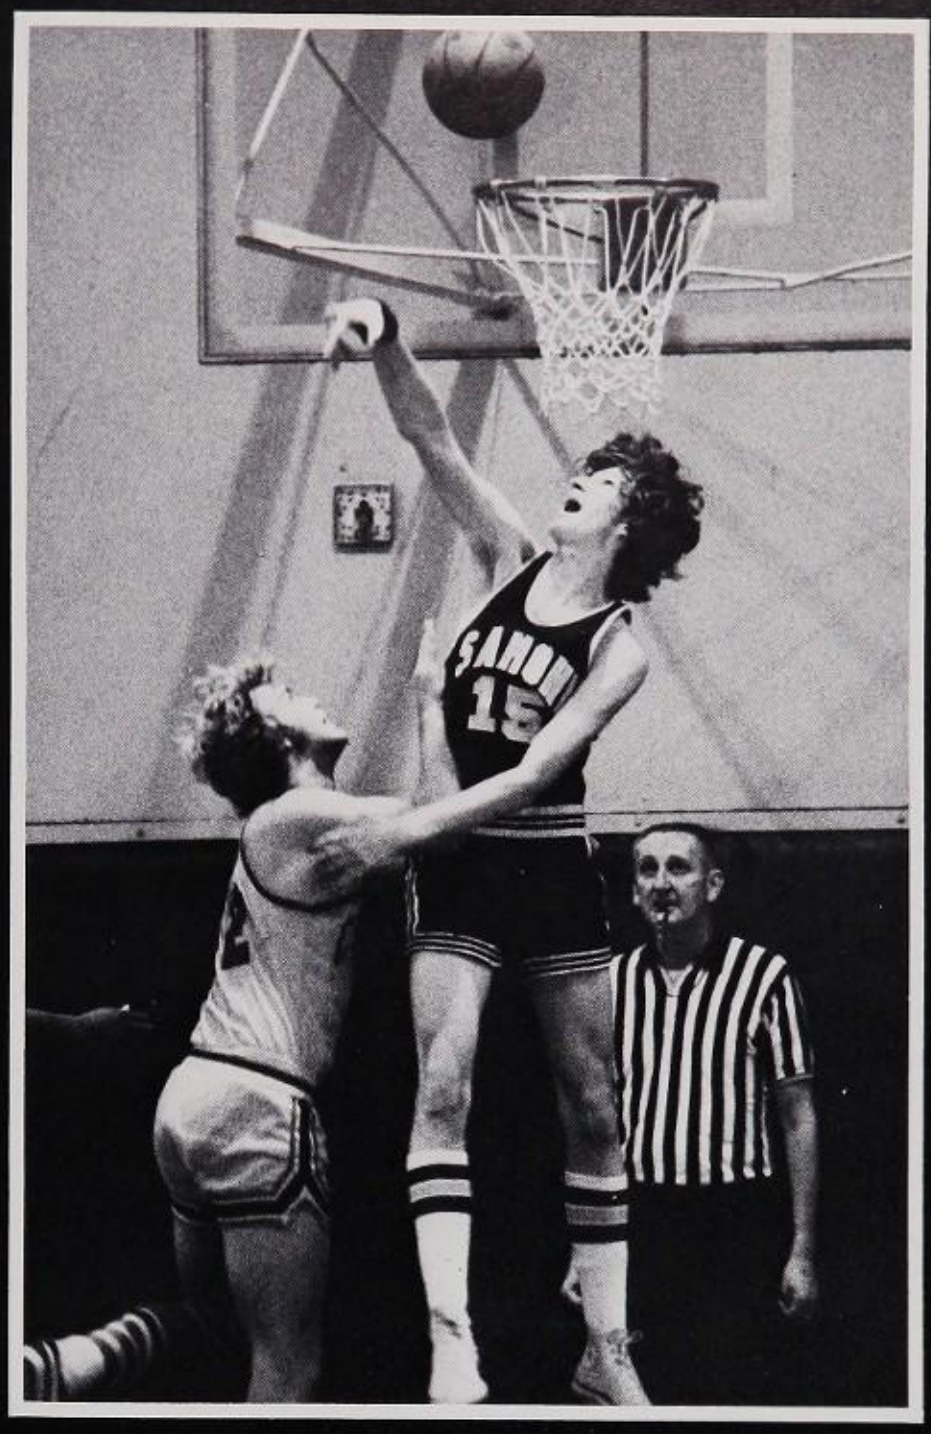


Tony Budzyn hits a clutch free throw.

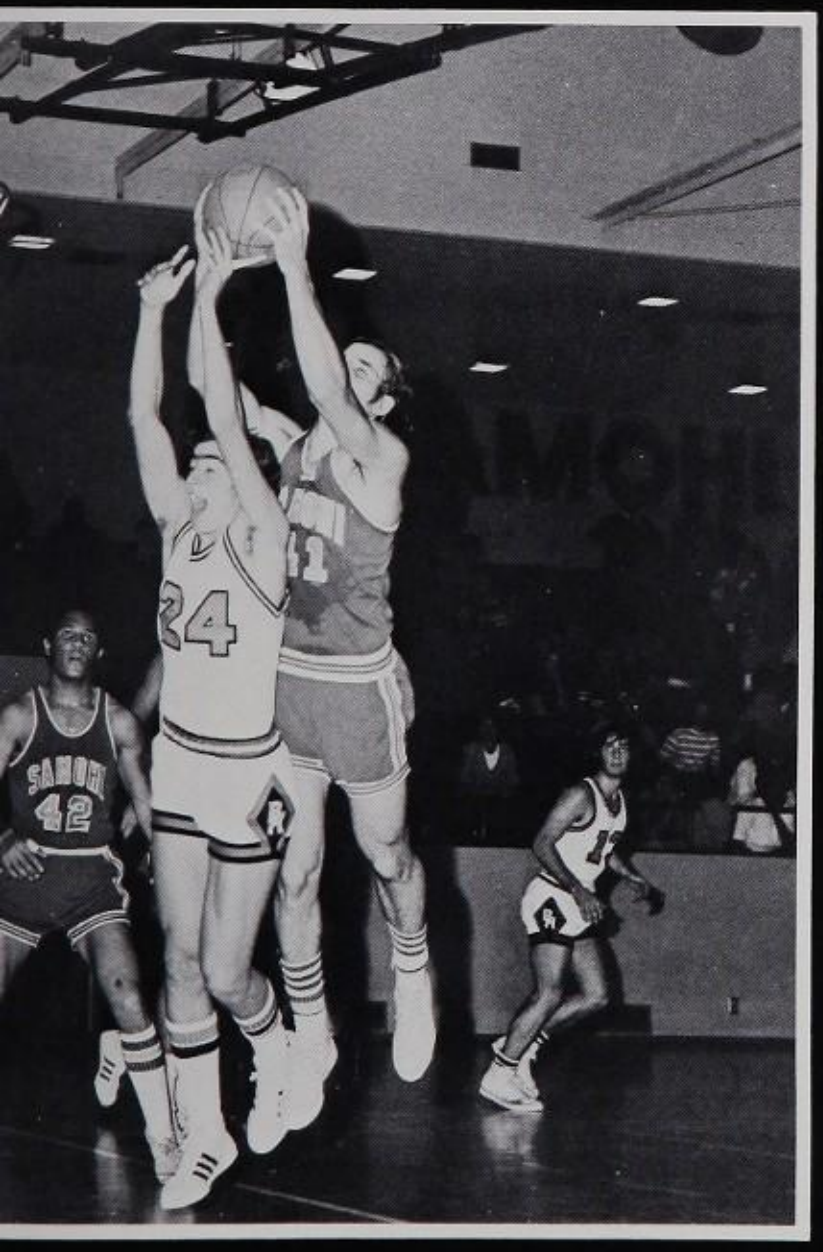
Driving the baseline, forward Tony Raymo passes off to Luke Wooden.

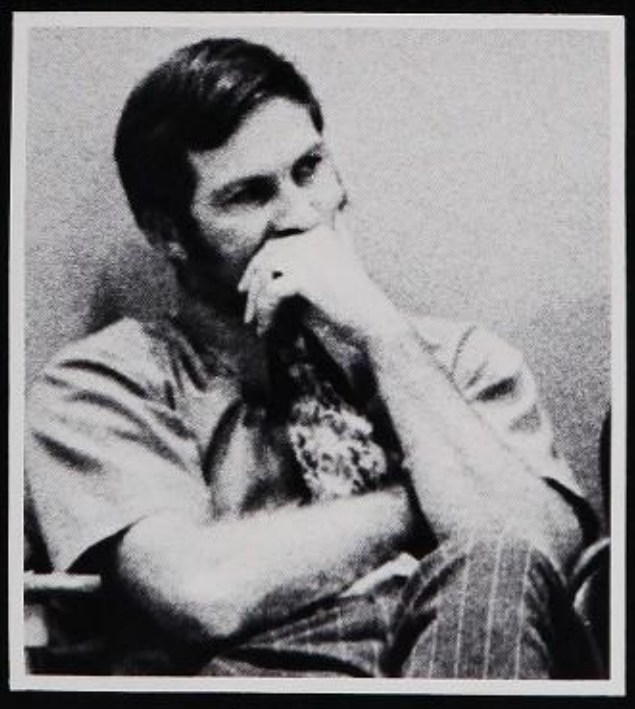


Mark Harding dribbles around Saxon defender.



Shot-blocking artist Lee Fulkerson skies high as he attempts to block a layup.





Coach Jim O'Keefe ponders the situation.

Left: Senior Luke Wooden outjumps Beverly Hills player for a rebound as Lee Fulkerson (15) and Tony Raymo (42) look on.

Robert Allison hits a game-winning free throw.

Rick Walker strains to win tip from North center.

Junior Varsity

The junior varsity basketball team couldn't put it all together, even though it turned out a lot of individual talent. Coached by Mr. Dick Beede, the JV's rolled to an 11-4 pre-season record during December and early January. But when league came, the Vikes lost four games by less than five points en route to a 3-7 mark. The quick hands and inside moves of Rick Walker teamed with the outside shooting of Howard Wedin and rebounding of center Tom Briggs led the junior varsity throughout the year.

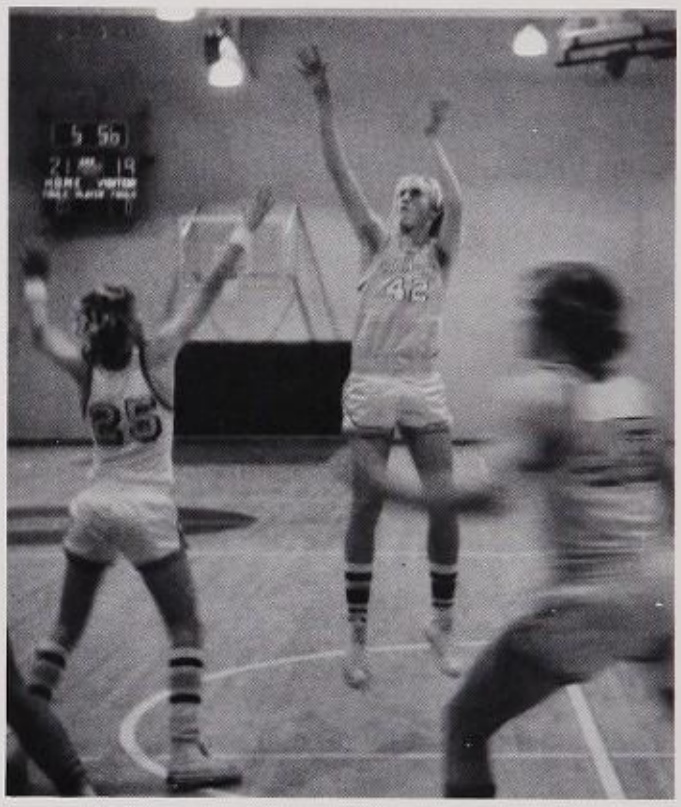
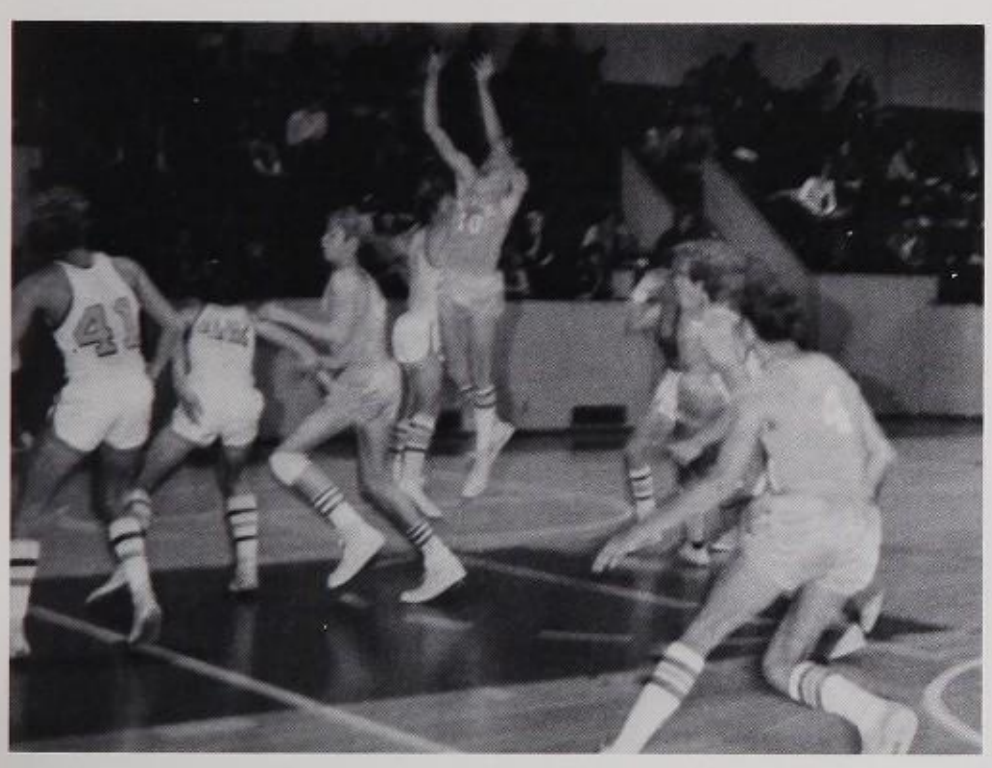
In walking away with a share of the league title, the Sophomore No. 1 team completed the most successful season of all the Samohi basketball teams. The squad, coached by Mr. Ken Petersen, dribbled its way to a 15-7 overall record and a 7-3 record in league play. Leading the way for the sophomores were Bill Navarro, Cliff Rooke, Bruce Rice, and Robert Pellicci.



Elliott White fires a jumper from the wing.



Bob Pellicci shows his jump shot to West Torrance, as Cliff Rooke and Mike Walkup (4) go for the rebound.

The Sophomore No. 2 team was a big surprise this year, as it took a second place in league competition on the strength of a 7-3 slate. Competing against the freshman outfits of other schools, the second Vike sophomore team was paced by Louis Krueger's rebounding, the ball-handling of Mark Melnyk, and some fine base-line shooting from Rich Brenton. They were molded into a team by Coach Mike Vincent.

Varsity Swim

Throughout the '73 campaign, Samohi's varsity swim team was strong in spirit and determination. Coach Frank Brooks felt his athletes did an excellent job, despite illness which considerably weakened the team. Preparation for a meet takes a lot of hard work, so each swimmer worked out daily in the pool, as well as with running and other exercises designed to strengthen the arms and legs. Valuable points were usually turned in by Don Cheetham in the individual medley and breaststroke; Rick Windes, 200- and 400-yard freestyle; butterflyer Terry Neemeyer; and Craig Partridge in the breaststroke.

Senior Dana Warren leads in the backstroke.

Excellent things were expected from the junior varsity and sophomore swimmers in 1973. Coached by Mr. Frank Brooks and his able-bodied assistant, Mr. Bob Coulter, the youthful frogmen stroked their way to great success in league competition. Winning the race against time most often in the blue waters of "Drake's Lake" were Russell Copley and Mike Moore.

Golf

With many lettermen returning, the 1973 version of Samohi's golf team enjoyed a fine season competing in the tough Ocean League, the Vikes faired very well against all opponents. Samo's linksmen played every Monday and Friday during the spring, hacking up courses located throughout Southern California, with their home course being Brentwood Country Club. The team plays each match with six players rated according to their ability. The five best scores are tabulated, and the team with the lowest score wins the match. Each week, the members have a chance to improve their position on the squad, depending on their match and practice play. Coached by Mr. Irv Kasten, a fine golfer himself, the Viking divot-makers were led by Chris Schoch, Doug MacGregor, and Mark Harding.

Boys' Volleyball

Coached by Mr. Ken Petersen, Samohi fielded an "unbelievable" boys' volleyball team in 1973. With league play starting March 22, the Vikes were co-favorites to win their league along with Palisades. Other teams in league competition were University, Carson, Culver City, and Loyola. Samo's spiking sensations included such stars as Keith Martin, Steve Davis, David Strausberg, George Gutierrez, Gary Sato, and Glenn Beede.

Keeping his eye on the ball, Steve Davis makes a perfect set.

Varsity Tennis

Serving its way to a sensational season, the varsity tennis team continued its winning ways in 1973. Under the guidance of Coach Lee Finch, the Vikes were again favored to win Bay League, and advance far into the CIF playoffs. They were led by one of the top performers in CIF and the country—Mike Nissley—and he was aptly backed up by Gene Berk, Jamie Wilson and Harold Hofer. Nissley is ranked seventh in the country in the 18 years and over division and is probably the best tennis player ever at Samo.

Jamie Wilson serves an ace.

Samo's top tennis player, Mike Nissley, shows smooth backhand which made him one of the best players in the country.

Ed Yueh follows through on a well-placed backhand.

A grimmacing Joel Miller extends himself on a long forehand shot.

Dave Schott crouches low as he drives into a picture-perfect stroke.

Barney Mow hedges an opponent.

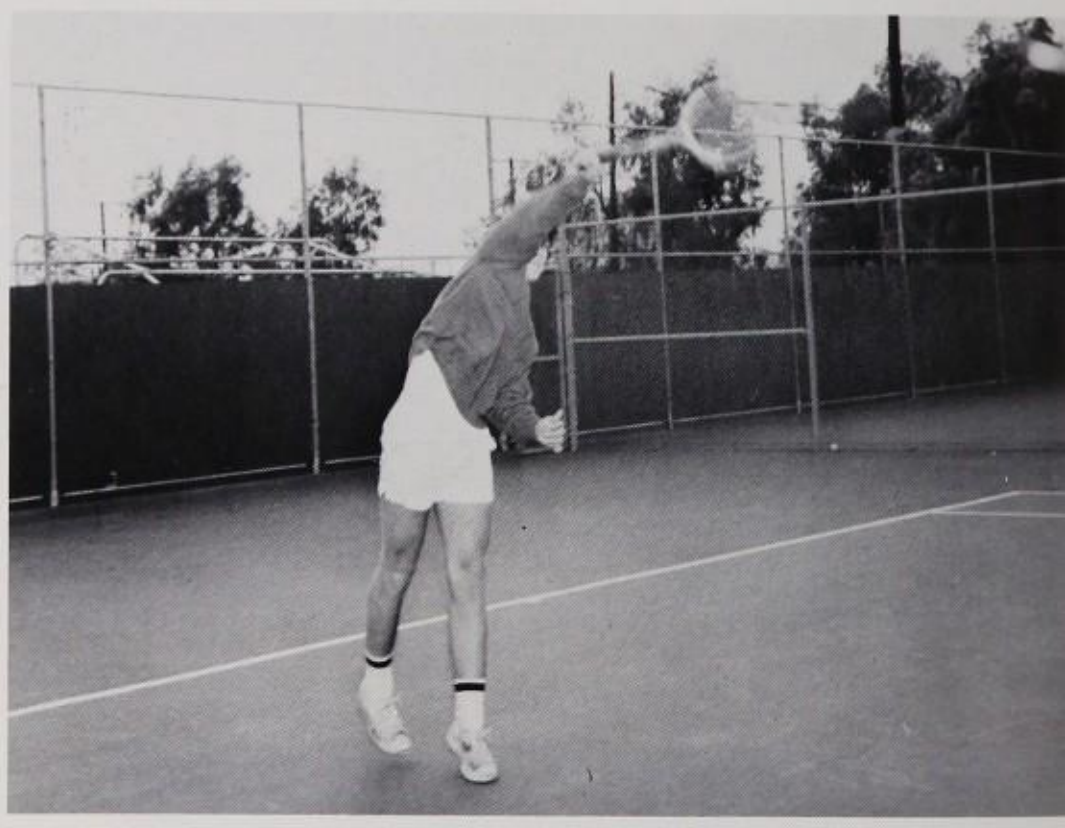
Junior Varsity

Hoping to fill-in the shoes of departing varsity players next year, the junior varsity tennis team worked on fundamentals under the guidance of Coach Lee Finch. Keeping up in the Samohi tennis tradition, the JV's again had great expectations as they stroked their way to success on the hardcourt.



Mark Finch slams an overhead.

Reuben Camacho follows through on a backhand.

Soccer

Under the leadership of Mr. Kent Francisco, the '73 soccer team was in a building year. Soccer was in its second season as a CIF sport, and Samo competed in the Bay League, where three teams were ranked in the top 10. Despite all their expertise, the Viking futbolers had a tough time in league with their rugged opponents, but should be on top of things next year.

Coach Don Sealy thinks of possible strategy.

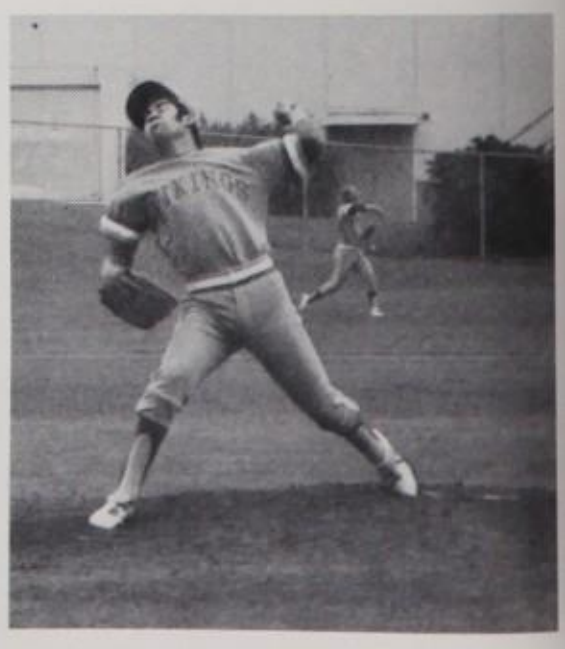
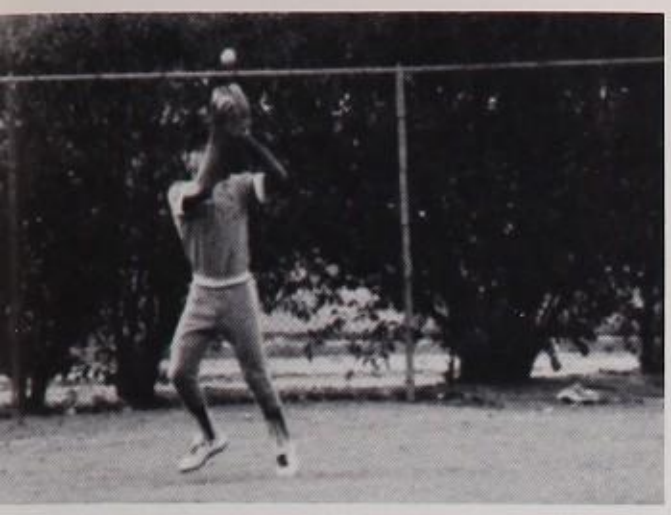
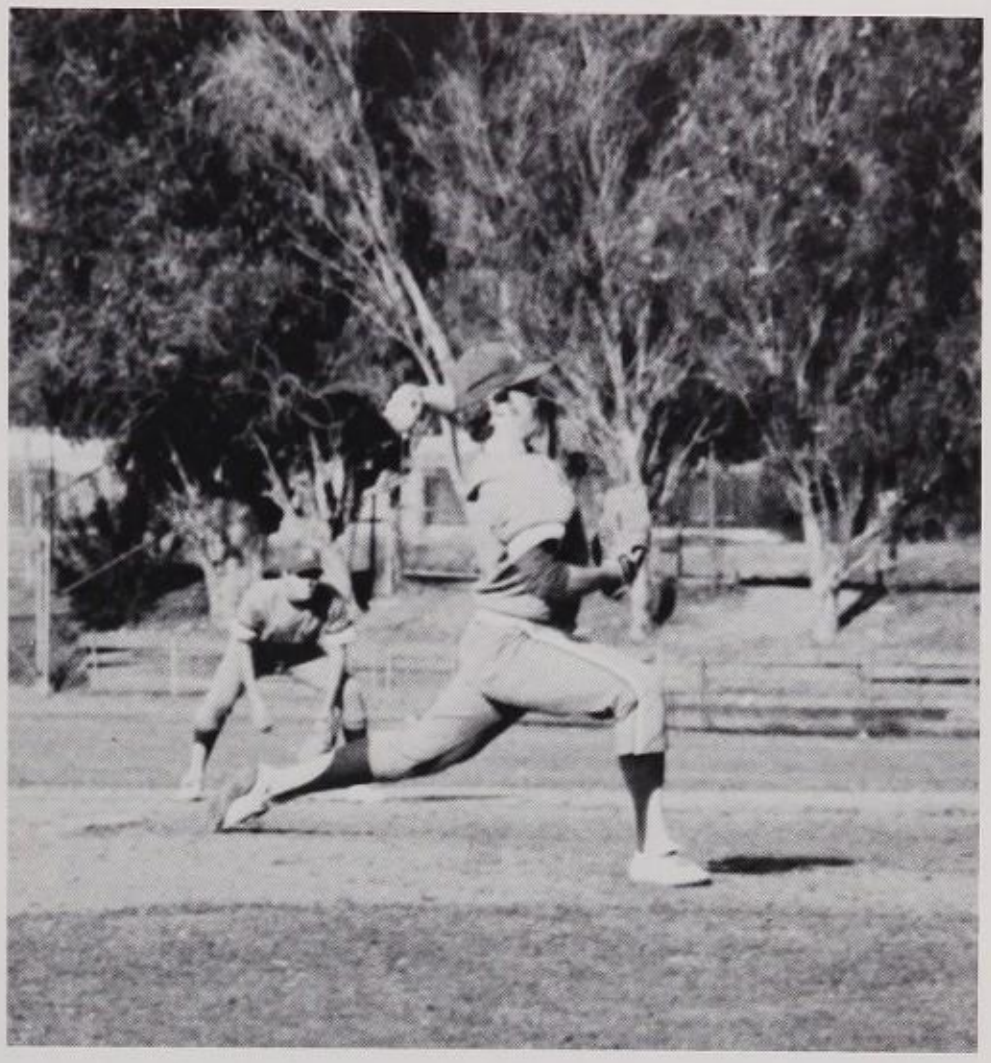
Raul Saenz warms up between innings.

Centerfielder Jeff Epling rounds first as his helmet falls off.





Ainslee Washington hauls in a long fly ball.



Pitcher Jim Gilchrist throws his great curveball.

Varsity Baseball

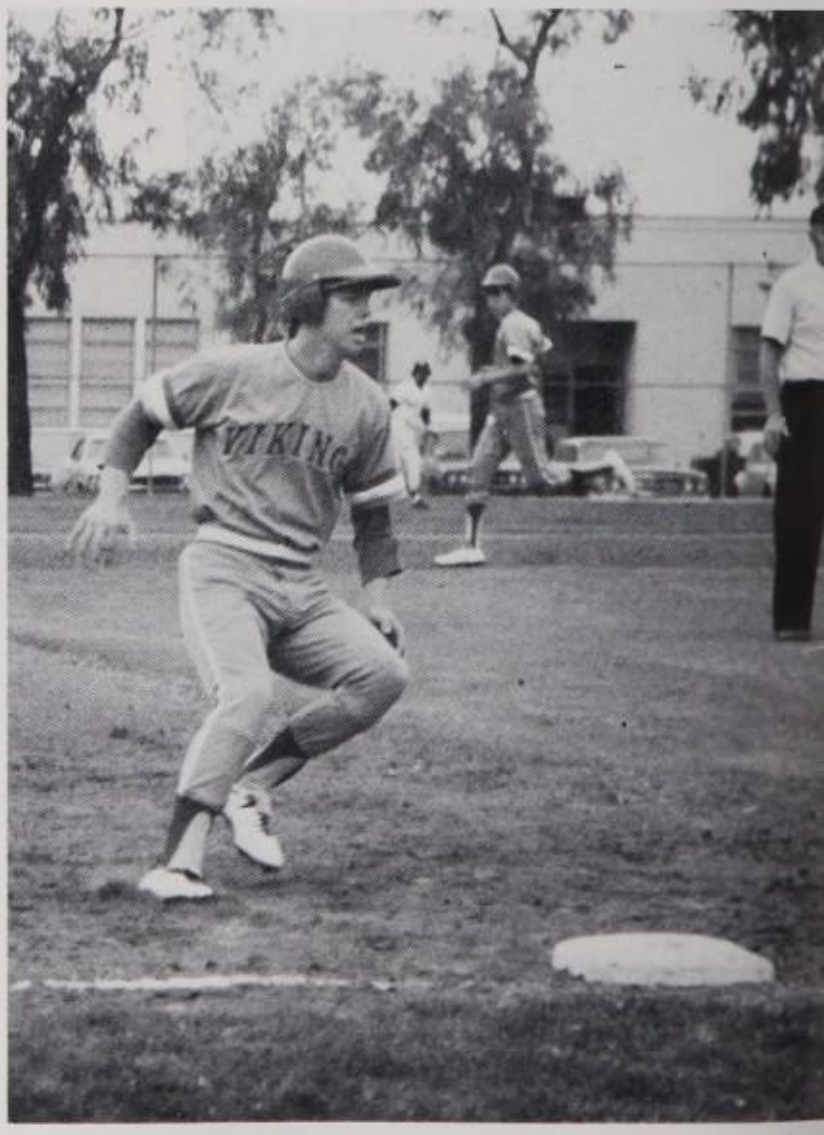
In the fashion of the Oakland Athletics, the Samohi baseball team approached the season with hope, hitting, and new light - blue double - knit uniforms with white shoes. Although picked to finish only fourth in Bay League, Coach Don Sealy felt the team had the potential to do much better. The pitching staff relied heavily on southpaws Raul Saenz, Jim Gilchrist, and David Weisbart, along with right - hander Anthony Williams. The infield consisted of Mike Rains, John Espy, Steve Vollmer, and Terry Bevington, with Byron McLaughlin behind the plate. Running down loose balls in the outfield were Ainslee Washington, Ralph Morphy, Jeff Epling, and Dennis Thurman.

Senior John Espy connects for an extra - base hit.

Steve Vollmer and Terry Bevington get ready for play to begin.

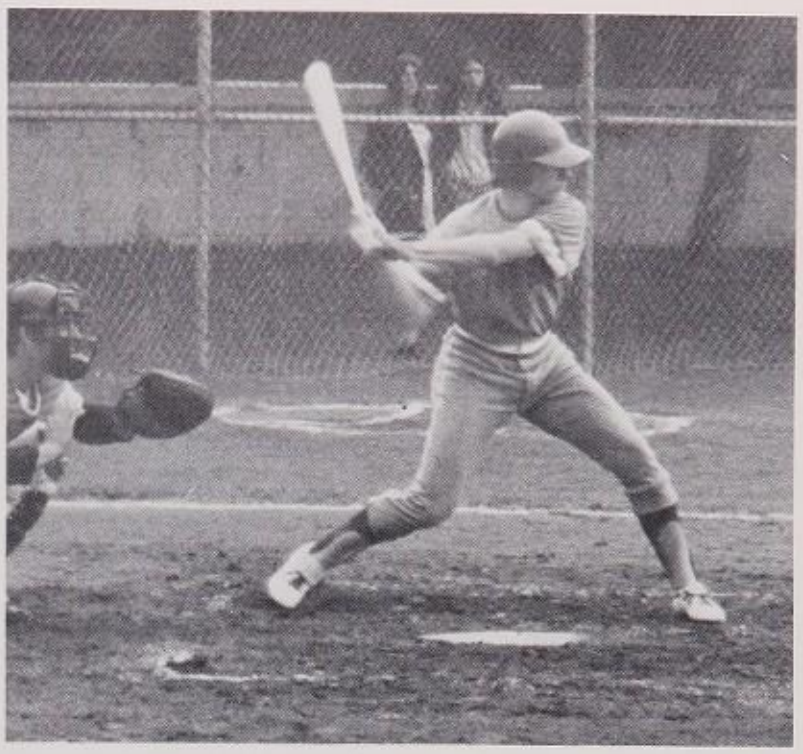
Catcher Byron McLaughlin singles to left field.

Junior Alan Gleissner beats out an infield hit.

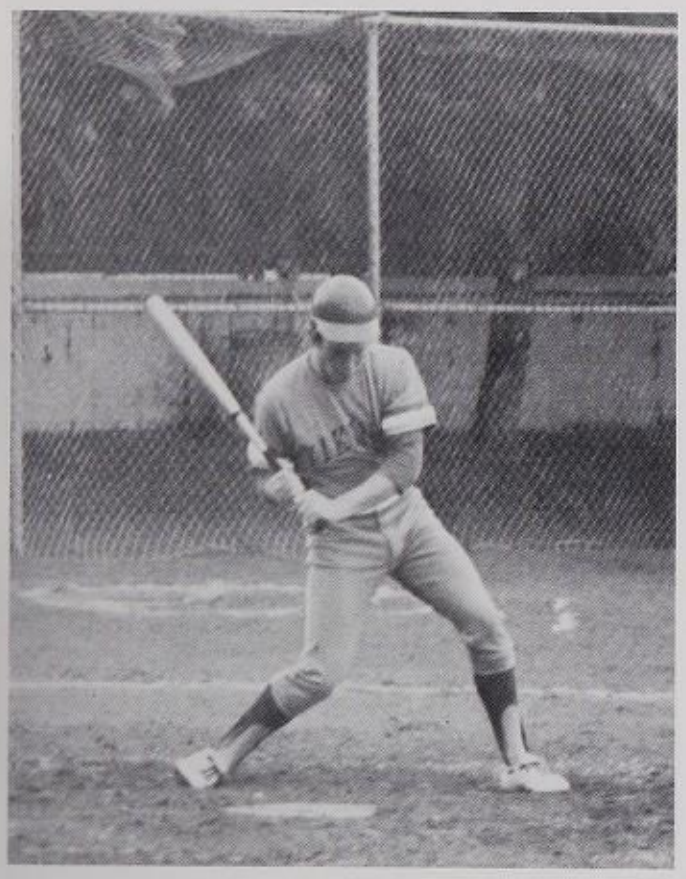


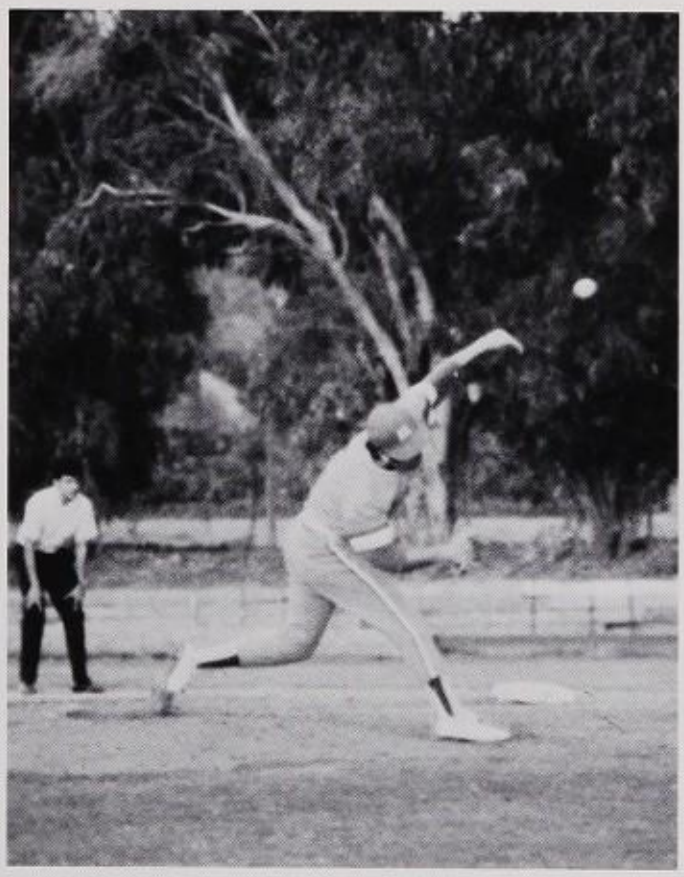
Rounding third and heading for home is second-baseman Steve Vollmer.

Dan Morgan stretches to secure the out.



Shortstop John Espy prepares to swing.





Far left: Senior Dan Morgan "takes" on the first pitch.

David Weisbart releases his devastating fastball.

Third-baseman Mike Rains steps into the batter's box.

Junior Varsity

Coached by Mr. Jim O'Keefe, the junior varsity baseball team was once again expected to do well. Consisting mainly of sophomores, the JV's were fairly green at the start of the year but gained experience and momentum as the year progressed. Leading the junior varsity were standouts Bill Navarro, Richard Taylor, and Ronald Morphy.

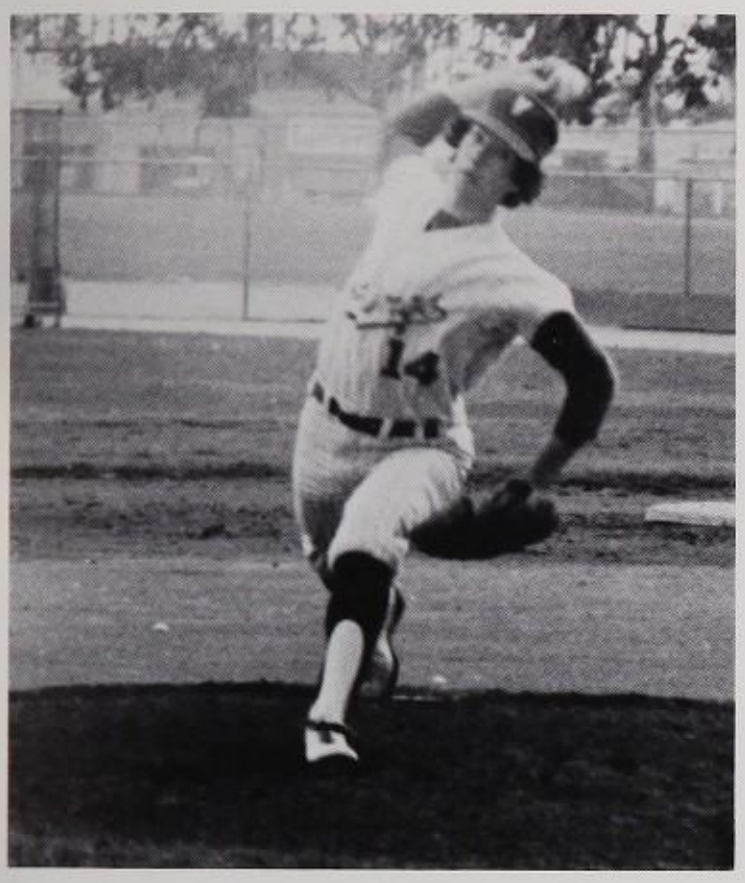
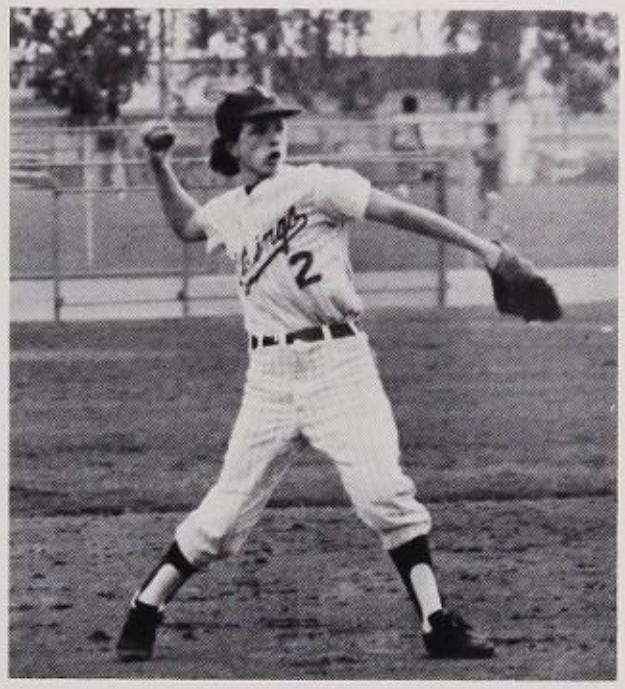
Bill Navarro practices throw to first base between innings.





Ron Morphy throws to first for the easy out.

Pitcher Richard Taylor smokes fastball past a batter.

Since the junior varsity team is made up of almost all sophomores, some might wonder why there is even a sophomore team at all. Well, the answer is that many fine ballplayers that are now seniors, started out on the sophomore team their first year at Samo. Many of them have played little baseball and will improve greatly during high school and move up to the varsity and become stars. Coaching these future prospects in 1973 was Mr. Mike Griswold.

Varsity Track

The 1973 track team began the year in fine form with a victory in its first outing of the season, a triangular meet against Lynwood and Long Beach Jordan. Coached by Mr. Paul Kerry and Mr. Mike Vincent, the tracksters' strength was in the middle and long distances with the Beck brothers, Curtis and Steve, backed up by Steve Gibson. Denny Korn added plenty of points in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard lows, while Steve Beverly was a consistent 10-flat sprinter, and Scott McDonald performed admirably in the high jump and long jump. Overall, the team was very strong, giving the entire Bay League a stiff challenge all season long.

Turning on down backstretch is Steve Gibson.

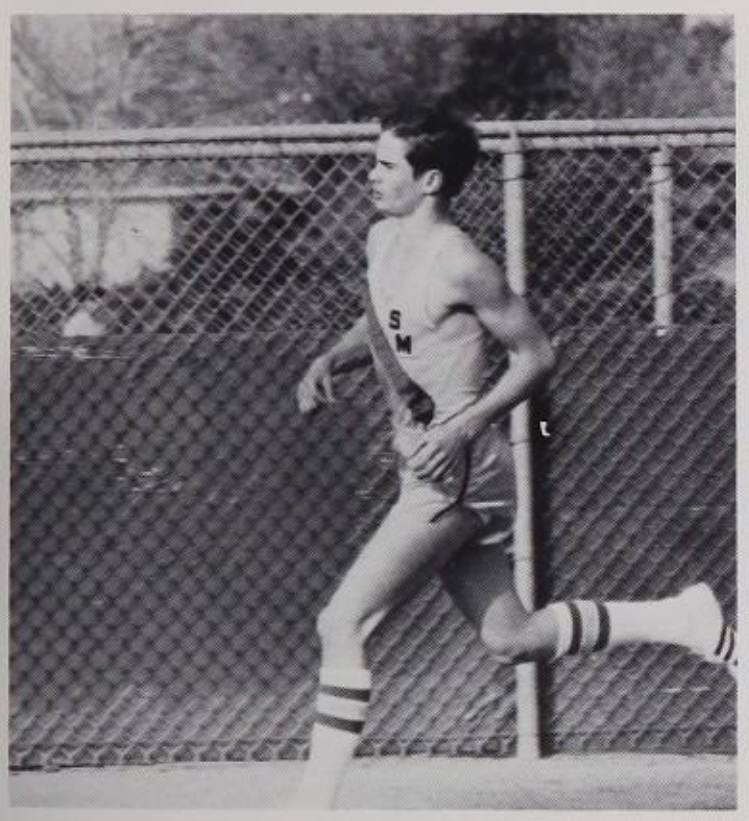
Sophomore

The sophomore track program, under the direction of coaches Paul Kerry and Mike Vincent, is concerned mainly with producing prospects for future varsity competition. And since most of the sophomores have had very little participation in organized track and field, the major emphasis is placed on fundamentals and style. Most outstanding on the 1973 Vike edition were sprinter Chris Hoff and hurdler Jay Guerrero.



Mike Walkup cruises into big lead in the 1320-yard run.

Jay Guerrero comes over last hurdle and breaks tape for first place.

Below (r. to l.): John Gaydos hands baton to Steve Beverly on last leg of 440-yard relay.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association provides a variety of activities for sports-minded girls. Members can compete in various sports, such as volleyball, basketball, and softball. GAA members exhibit good sportsmanship as well as superior athletic ability. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Marilyn Carruthers, Mrs. Karen Whyte, and Miss Martha Ruby.

MEMBERS (first row, l. to r.): K. Rehler, S. White, S. Travers, D. Newell, F. Puplampu, E. Barnard; (second row, l. to r.): A. Alba, B. Casillas, L. Brownell, L. Orbach, V. Brewster, D. Wilder, F. Two girls sport different styles in the hurdles.

Girls' Volleyball

In 1972, girls' volleyball became an official CIF sport, leagues were formed, and a playoff tournament was held. Samohi fielded two teams in competition, an A team and a B team. Coached by Miss Marty Ruby, the teams won many victories against rugged opponents, and also competed against a tough Palisades outfit. The A team was led by Claire McCarty, Linda Lloyd de Silva, Patty Olsen, and Carrie Eastman. Standouts for the B squad were Robin Christiansen, Holly Sweet, and Wendy Steere.

Claire McCarty reaches for the sky as she sets up teammate.

Girls' Tennis

Once again, Samohi's girls' tennis team was a strong contender for the Bay League title. The team cruised to a 4-1 league record, and a second-place finish. The girls' tennis team, sponsored by Mrs. Marilyn Carruthers, has won the Bay League crown seven of the nine years it has competed. Playing on this year's edition of the Viking netters were singles players Robin Trumbull, Gail Rawn, and Nancy Davis. Playing doubles were the teams of Eileen Barnard - Sonny Gamble, and Susan Kane - Anna Chu.

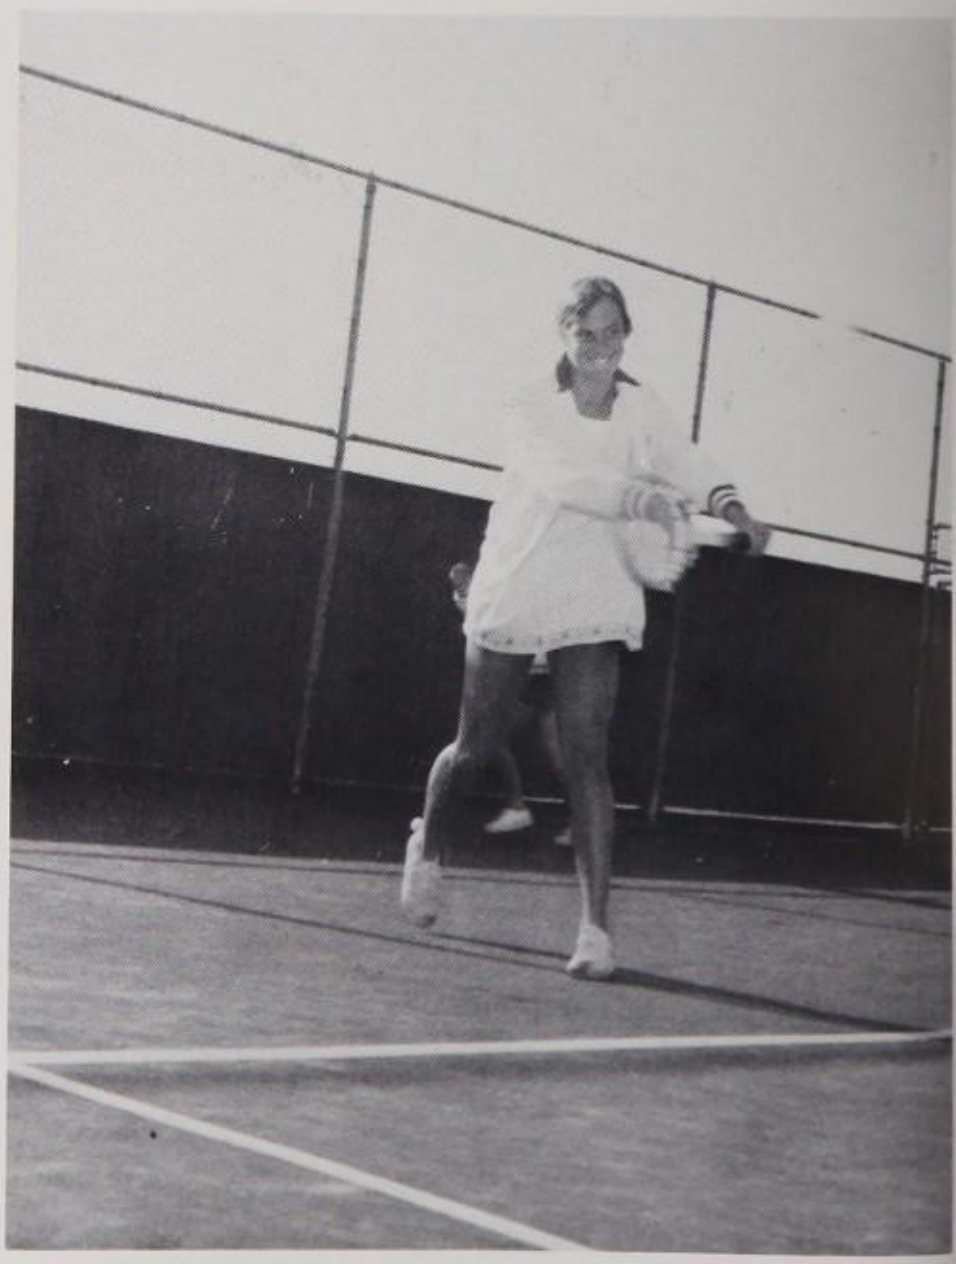
Sonny Gamble slams a hard forehand back to her opponent.

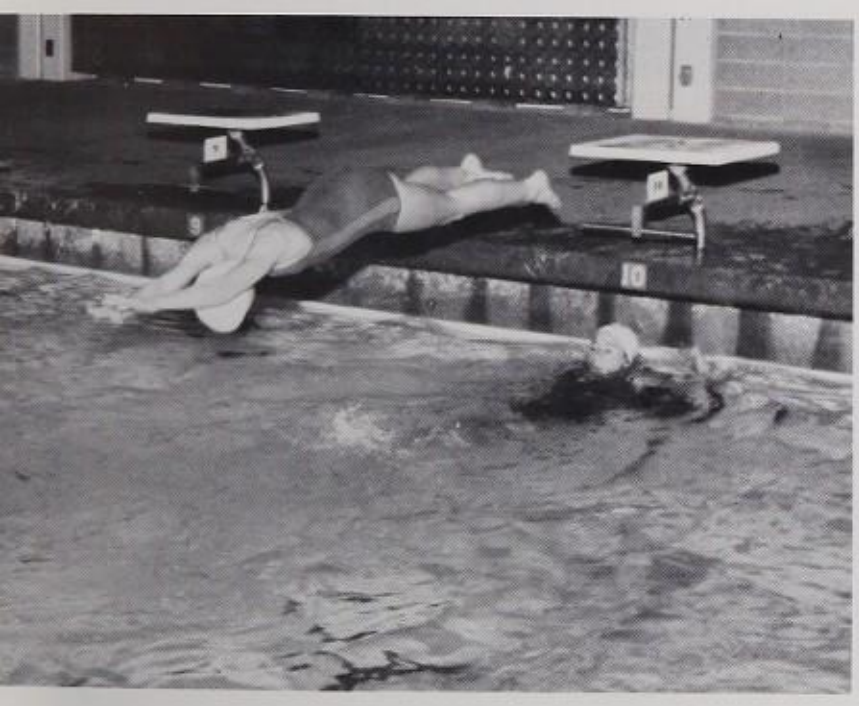


Junior netter Robin Trumbull exhibits strong backhand.

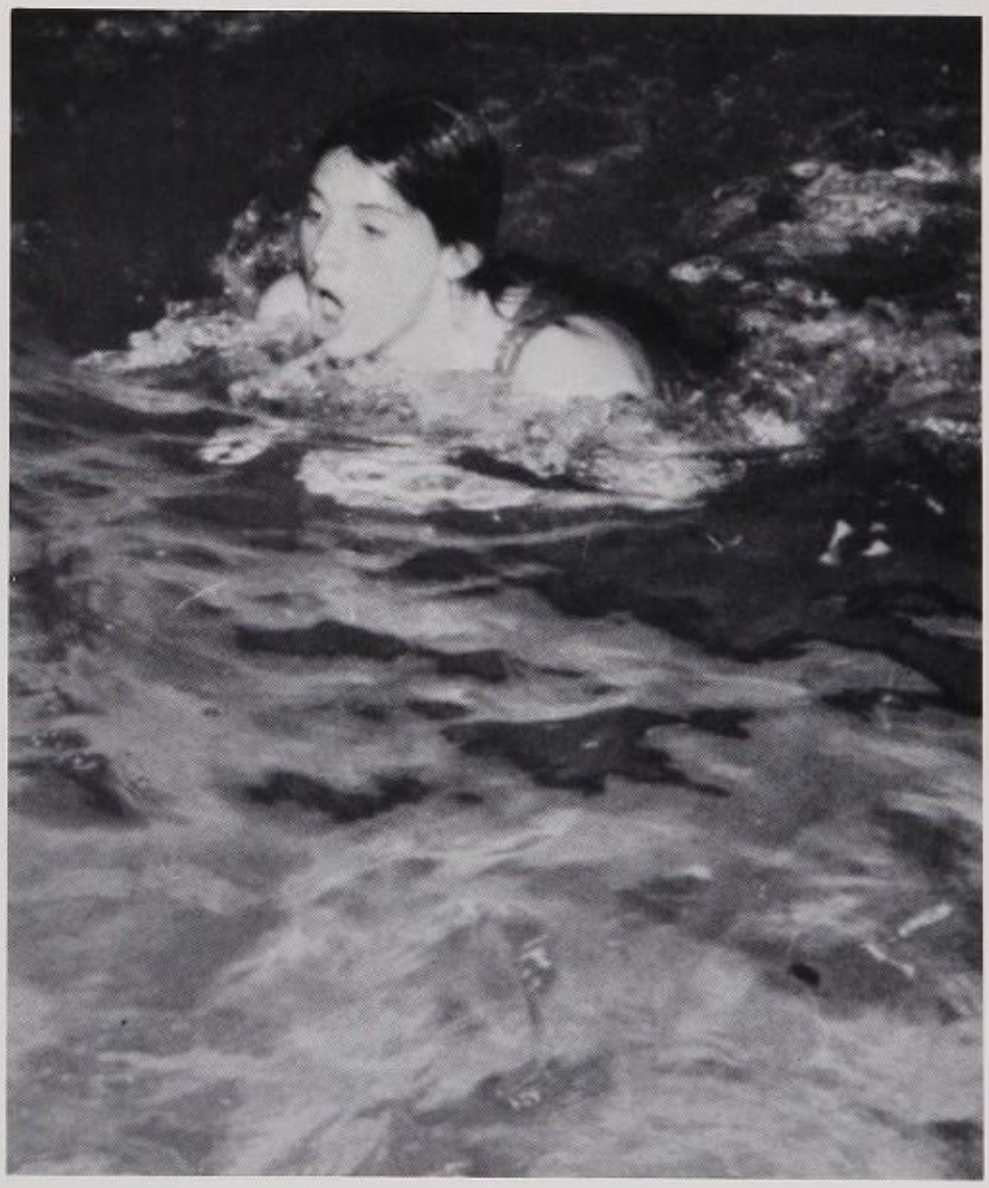
Margaret Richards and Jill King work on the butterfly.

Girls' Swim

Working out daily during third period, the Samohi girls' swim team was in its first year of existence as a CIF sport. Coached by Miss Gina Biggs, the girls swam their way to many victories against stiff opposition in Southern California.



Swimmer Margaret Richards practices her starts.



Krista Koeppe develops her breaststroke.

Colleen Bruce comes up for air during a strenuous workout.

Do unto others.

The golden rule of community service. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. People who participate in community activities are living this rule. They respond to the needs of the community by reaching out to individuals within it. In that way, the whole community is improved.

First Federal Savings participates in community affairs in just such a way. First Federal provides a free 200-seat, fully equipped Community Room for use by any accredited group. Last year, over 14,000 people benefited from these First Federal facilities! The officers and employees of First Federal are also well-known for their personal participation in a wide range of public service projects.

It is this "we care" attitude of First Federal that has made it so strong.

DEDICATION

To Mr. Mike Pardridge, who taught us to laugh while we learned.

The Final Analysis

As I write this last page the night before our final deadline, I realize how much we have all learned from the experiences we have had in making this book. It's amazing to see a yearbook go together before your eyes. I hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed making it.

Cindy Pearson, Editor

Mr. Mike Pardridge, Advisor

A Special Thank-You To

Mike Pardridge, for being the best advisor a yearbook staff could ever have, but most of all, for being a good friend.
Gary Field, for doing every job possible.
Ursula Burton, for helping me through the year.
Sue White, for taking over all the editors' positions that no one else wanted.
Richard Mackson, for saving us with his great photographs.
Mr. Leach, for his generous contributions to NAUTILUS staff parties.
Mr. Doan and Mrs. Gruber, for their secretarial help.
Marshall Hollenberg, for dropping by when he was in the neighborhood.
John Luker, for his superb photographs of Gretha.
Jim Ansite, for coming around more often than Marshall.
Steve Jones, for entertaining all the girls on the staff.
Pax and Jo, for standing guard during those late - night meetings.
